THOUGHTS FOR SUMMER

Summer is considered to be the time for vacations. It is that for so many. Yet, that does not mean that "the good old summer time" is not a time for real work and great accomplishments.

Right here at Trinity, in this month of July, a great project is under way. It is our Vacation Church School. Well-trained and dedicated teachers and leaders are giving time to this task. It will mean so much in the lives of boys and girls. In fact, these children will get more training in two weeks in this Vacation School than in six months of regular Sunday Church School. Are your children enrolled? The dates are July 7 through 17.

Then, there are those wonderful experiences for our Intermediate and Senior MYF young people as they go to the Leesburg Youth Camp.

Are your plans leading you in that direction? Ask Miss Madeline Wilson about it. There will be others of the Older Youth groups and adults who will be going to the Junaluska Camp Ground for periods of special training this summer.

T. Aubrey Morse, chairman of our Membership and Evangelism Commission, is now in Washington, D.C. attending the great Convocation on Evangelism for our Church. All this will help us to be ready for better work this fall and winter.

Let each one of us find his place in Church each Sunday when you are in the city, and when you are away find some Church where you can join with God's people in worship each Sunday. If you are favored with a vacation this summer, enjoy it—every day of it, and may God bless and guide you all the way.

Seminary Student To Work At Trinity Methodist During Summer Months

It is a privilege to have a Seminary student serve with us this summer as an interne. Robert M. Temple, Jr. has had one year at Emory and there will be two more years before graduation.

It is with pardonable pride that Trinity thus gives to one of her own young men, this interne scholarship to speed him on his way. It is the plan of the church to help other students also who plan to go into full time service with the church. This is our first experience with the plan.

The Methodist Men of Trinity are making a major project out of this scholarship, and we hope it will become an annual phase of their work. It will mean much to our students. Robert plans to secure a student charge in the North Georgia Conference as soon as possible. We wish him every success in the Ministry.

The Rev. D. C. Morris To Serve at Trinity As Associate Pastor

The Rev. Danny E. Morris has been appointed to serve Trinity as associate pastor for the present Conference Year. He, with his wife and young son, will move into the Edwards Street parsonage early in July, and will be here for work about the middle of the month.

We are glad to have these fine young people to be with us on our staff. All will give them a hearty welcome. Brother Morris has been serving a church in Atlanta for the past two years, his term of service there ends this month.

Officers and Committees for New Church Season Ready for Busy Year

This issue of Trinity Tidings is given over to the listing of officials and committees of both the Official Board and the Quarterly Conference.

These people, along with the special committees, carry on the far-flung and heavy work of your Trinity Methodist church.

It is hoped that you will keep this copy of the Tidings in your desk or at your work table so that you will be able to contact any church worker as the need demands without calling the church office.

Lack of room prohibited publishing the members of the 1958-'59 commissions, so the list will be held over for the next issue of the Tidings.

Union Evening Services Planned For Summer

Union evening services will be held during the nine Sunday nights in July and August, starting next Sunday, July 6, at the First Presbyterian church.

Services will alternate between Trinity Methodist and the First Presbyterian church during the two month period.

"The Rev. Robert Hull will preach the opening sermon," said Dr. Glenn James in making the announcement.

"It is our hope that Trinity Methodist church members will plan to support these services each Sunday evening," he added.
