SUNDAY, JANUARY 6, 1963

THIS IS YOUR INVITATION

On Wednesday evening, January 9, you have a date with the other members of your Trinity Church Family. The Education Committee of the EMV, with Dr. Griffith Pugh as Chairman, has planned a Congregational Dinner for that evening to which each member and constituent is invited. The dinner (covered dish) will be held at the fair grounds at 6:30 p.m. After we have enjoyed a fine meal together our fellowship will be enriched by a brief presentation designed to explain to all of us the program that challenges Trinity in the immediate future. The Commissions and Committees of our church have dreamed well and worked hard in seeking to outline the type of program a church with our opportunities should carry on. The resulting plans are thrilling, and we want to share them with you. Wednesday evening, January 9, will be a time of good fellowship as well as inspiration. We are counting on you to be present.

WHO ARE THE WISE MEN?

Who were the Wise Men in the long ago?
 Not Herod, fearful lest he lose his throne;
 Not Pharisees too proud to claim their own;
 Not priests and scribes whose province was to know;
 Not money-changers running to and fro;
 But three who traveled weary and alone,
 With dauntless faith, because before them shone
 The star that led to the manger low.

Who are the Wise Men now, when all is told
 Not men of science, not the great and strong;
 Not those who wear a kingly diadem;
 Not those whose eager hands pile high the gold;
 But those amid the tumult and the strong
 Who follow still the Star of Bethlehem.

EVENING SERVICE—7:30 P.M.—TRINITY HALL
Communion Meditation: "LIGHT FOR THE WORLD," The Pastor
Text: Philippians 2:15

Help, HELP, H-E-L-P

I am not sure that our position can be equated with that of a drowning person, but I do know that it sometimes seems desperate; consequently, I am asking for your understanding, cooperation and support.

As your minister it is necessary that I have some time for study, meditation and prayer that is free from interruption. When this period is broken it often means that an idea is lost forever or that a considerable period of time is lost in trying to recapture it. Consequently, I plan to be in my study from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. each morning, and in the office from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Thursday. If your phone calls could be made to the office between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. it would be helpful. This will also be a convenient time for interviews. Appointments will be happily arranged at other hours, but I hope you will help me by phoning so that a definite time can be scheduled. It is my hope that you will feel free at any time to call upon me as your minister. My wife will always come to the study for me (there is no phone there) in case you need me between 8 a.m. and 11 a.m., but unless it is something that calls for immediate attention I will appreciate your helping me to keep these hours free from interruption.

You can also help by phoning the Church Office the names of relatives, friends, and neighbors who are admitted to the hospital. I visit in the hospital regularly but am often embarrassed by discovering that some member has been in the hospital and discharged without my knowing it. The records available to me at the hospital have not proven adequate nor have I been able to learn all our people well enough to be sure that I recognize their names by looking at a list without addresses. The only sure way for us to know about any illness is for you to phone the Church Office. We'll appreciate your help in rendering this important pastoral service.

Some weeks ago a university student came by my office to talk about the church. In the conversation he mentioned how difficult it was for him to meditate during the prelude because of the rather loud conversations going on in Opperman Hall. It will undoubtedly help many people to get more out of our services if we whisper prayers after the Prelude begins. Then, too, there are the interruptions which come when late comers can't be seated on the end of a row of seats. It would be most helpful if those who are seated first in a row would move to the center.

We have a wonderful church and some of the finest people in the world make-up our congregation. I know you will help when you understand a need. God bless you each and every one.

Faithfully your minister

TRINITY'S OFFICIAL BOARD WILL NOT MEET this month.

METHODIST MEN'S HOUR

Radio Station WMEN has started carrying the Methodist Men's Hour at 12:30 P.M. each Sunday. The speaker is Dr. Charles Ray Goff of the Chicago Temple Methodist Church. This is an excellent program and we are delighted that it is now being carried by Radio Station WMEN.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION FOR 1963

It is urgent for the Christian family to cultivate the practice of daily devotions. It will stabilize the daily life, strengthen family fellowship, and prepare the members for dedicated service in their church. Let the Upper Room help you increase the interest in daily devotions by your family. The carefully chosen Bible readings, the heartwarming meditations illustrated by human stories from all parts of the world, the meaningful prayers and thoughts for the day, make up the contents of this widely used devotional guide. The decision to have family devotions in your home could be the most important one you will make in 1963. Get your copy of the Upper Room from the Literature Racks at the entrance of Opperman Hall or from the Church Office.

W.S.C.S. Executive Committee to meet Tuesday, January 8th, at 10:30 A.M., in Trinity Chapel. The Luncheon will follow at 12:00 Noon in Trinity Hall.

LOOKING AHEAD

All of our attention is now directed toward the successful conclusion of our Every Member Visitation Program. The organization, planning and training part of the E.M.V. has been marvelous to behold. Our people have been quick to offer their services and faithful as well as capable in performing their duties. The final training session for the Visitors will be held this afternoon at 4:00 P.M. in Trinity Hall.

Next Sunday, January 20, is Loyalty Sunday. Every member of the congregation is asked to demonstrate his loyalty in three ways: first, to attend one of the worship services that morning; second, to remain at home that afternoon until he has been contacted by a team of Visitors; third, when the Visitors call to be prepared to assume a share in Trinity's program that will indicate his devotion and loyalty to Christ's Church.

As of January 31 all previous pledges to Trinity's Budget and Building Fund will be cancelled (the only exception being a few for which special arrangements have been made). Your new pledge to a Budget, which combines both programs, takes effect on February 1.

A large number of our contributors have adopted a policy of keeping their contributions current by signing bank orders. This means that the bank transfers the appropriate amount from your account to that of the Church on the first day in each month. If you wish to make your contribution in this manner you should sign a new bank order, as all the old ones will terminate as of January 31.

Sunday, January 27, will be Victory Sunday. On that day we plan to announce the budget pledged, and to dedicate your pledge cards at the altar of the Church.

"The Christian Mission on the Rim of East Asia" is the theme for the special emphasis on Missions during January. All the adult classes are enjoying special presentations at 9:50 A.M. each Sunday morning. Pupils should follow the Adult Fellowship Series in the Adult Student written by Dr. Tracey K. Jones, who headed the work of the Methodist Church in Southeast Asia for many years. The Children's and Youth Divisions are using the study on the same area found in their study materials. At the evening worship services the minister will be using slides taken when he visited Southeast Asia to illustrate the work being carried on in that part of the world by the Methodist Church.

NEW LIFE MISSION

During the week of February 24 through March 1 we will participate in a New Life Mission. New Life Preaching Missions are being held throughout the Florida Conference under the direction of the Conference Board of Evangelism in observance of Aldersgate Year. HYMNALS

Last week a friend brought a copy of The Methodist Hymnal by the Church Office explaining that he had taken it home without realizing that it was still in his hands. Perhaps there are others who have "borrowed" copies of the hymnal under similar circumstances. If there is a copy of the Hymnal in your home that is not being used we need it for our services at Opperman Hall. Don't bother to bring it by the Church Office. Just take it with you when you go to Church next Sunday Morning.

ON TITHING

There are two ways in which the tithe is sometimes mis-represented, and perhaps this is the reason some people have not been willing to try it. One of these mis-representations is that the tithe is a mechanical thing, and will guarantee prosperity, since God will be required to honor one who tithes. The other mis-representation is that tithing is an isolated part of one's religion, and has no bearing on worship or religious observance.

Actually, tithing is a way of life, not a part of life. It begins with the realization that all things come from God, and we are only stewards of what He has entrusted to our care. It ends with the realization that tithing of income is only one phase of worship, or religious observance, and that our time, our energies and our lives themselves are to be under His direction. So we begin with tithing; but we end up belonging completely to Him.

Try it; you will find it a satisfying way of life.—Copied.

VICTORY SUNDAY

As this is being written our Every Member Visitation is in progress. It is impossible at this time to say just how successful we will be. I can say, however, that I am proud of the leadership and the enthusiastic support that most of our people have given this undertaking. I have been in several large financial campaigns and many budget drives. Never have I been privileged to work with more capable or more dedicated people. Nor have I ever known a large group of visitors to be more faithful in their training and visitation effort. To each of you who have helped to make this Every Member Visitation possible the entire congregation says Thank you.

Our pledge cards will be dedicated at the Morning Worship Services today. You will want to be sure that your card is in by then and that you are present for this significant moment.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

Today is annual Wesleyan Service Guild Sunday. We recognize this important body in The Methodist Church. The Guild is auxiliary to the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the membership is composed of employed women. Trinity has one of the largest and finest Wesleyan Service Guilds in the church and we appreciate the program carried on by these women. Employed women are invited to join.

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY

Beyond Cotabato by Curran L. Spottswood is a story of high adventure. This compelling account of missionary enterprise and achievement in a strange and colorful land has been written by our own Florida missionary, who has become "The Flying Parson" of the Philippines. As you climb aboard the single-engine "Circuit Rider" you will be treated to an illuminating, electrifying view of Christian challenge abroad.

Of Men Who Ventured Much And Far is a book by another of our Florida Ministers. Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun is the president of Paine College and has written this interesting story of the opening of the Congo. This story represents one of Methodism's finest hours. Bishop Walter R. Lambuth was a trustee and Dr. John W. Gilbert a professor of Paine College. These men responded to an irresistible call to establish Methodism in a remote part of Africa. The results of their call has become history and this book faithfully records the story.

Wesleyan Service Guild Sunday

Emblem: The Christian flag; the torch; the cross.

Quadrennial Theme: OUR MISSION TODAY

Purpose: To provide a channel through which employed women can achieve spiritual enrichment and Christian fellowship and take on active part in developing a world Christian community.

Program integrates all aspects of Christian living:

1. It extends Christian social relations to quicken the community conscience.
2. It promotes understanding of crisis areas served by Methodist missions and provides opportunity for action.
3. It provides channels of supply for worthy causes in promotion of church activity.
4. It cultivates spiritual enrichment for each member, giving her an awareness of her responsibility as a witness in her home, in her church, to her sister organization, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, to her Community, to her world. The Guild is the working woman's program of service to her church, the name is Wesleyan Service Guild. In worship programs, in prayer Groups, through sacrificial gifts each woman presents herself, a living witness to the great power of Christianity to bring peace to her soul first and ultimately to a disordered world.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD HYMN (Finlandia)

(To be sung at the eleven o'clock service as the Closing Hymn following the Sermon.)

This is my song, O God of all the Nations,
A song of peace for lands afar and mine;
This is my home, the country where my heart is,
This is my hope, my dream, my faith, my shrine.
But other hearts in other lands are beating—
With hopes and dreams and faith the same as mine.

My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
And sunlight beams on clover leaf and pine;
But other lands have sunlight, too and clover,
And skies are sometimes ocean blue as mine.
Oh, hear my song, thou God of all the nations,
A song of peace for other lands and mine.

This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's kingdoms,
Thy kingdom come; on earth Thy will be done.
Let Christ be lifted up till all men serve Him.
And hearts united learn to live as one,
Oh, hear my prayer, thou God of all the nations,
Myself I give Thee; let Thy will be done.
