WORLD-WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

The observance of World-Wide Communion Sunday on the first Sunday in October has become one of the most significant days in global Christianity. It is estimated that of the nearly one billion Christians throughout the world, millions will bow and kneel at the Lord's Table, carrying out the tradition of Christian unity.

This year as Methodists participate in the spiritual life-renewing sacrament they will have in mind the thought: "As we drink the cup and eat the bread, we sense our oneness in Christ. And as we give, we express our oneness with our fellows."

Oneness with our fellow man is put in action through our contributions to the Fellowship of Suffering and Service Offering received on this day. These gifts are divided as follows:

One-half goes to the Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief for its work in relief, reconstruction and rehabilitation. In the past 24 years MCOR has received and administered more than $20 million for food, clothing, blankets, medicines, hospitalization, and temporary housing. More recently, increasing emphasis has been placed on rehabilitation of refugees and disaster victims.

One-fourth goes to the Commission on Chaplains to recruit chaplains, assist their work, and provide for pensions. This commission undergirds the work of 650 Methodist ministers who serve as chaplains with the armed forces, in hospitals, in correctional institutions, and in industry. This is a truly ecumenical ministry as these chaplains are sent to minister to the spiritual welfare of all men and women.

One-fourth goes to the Commission on Camp Activities. Servicemen and their families who find themselves in a new community, most often far from home, welcome the work accomplished through this commission. With funds from World-wide Communion offerings, churches near military establishments are assisted in providing a "home church away from home," for these Methodists and others in the service.

Every member should commune at one of the Services this Sunday. Holy Communion will be administered at both morning services. Those who find it convenient are urged to attend the early service. Those who can attend only in the evening will be given an opportunity to commune at the close of the evening service.

VOICE OF OUR CHRISTIAN HERITAGE

The Eucharist

Past, present, and future are indissolubly united in the sacrament. It may be regarded as a dramatization of the advent of the Lord, which is at once His remembered coming in humiliation, and His desired coming in glory, both realized in His true presence in the Sacrament.

In the Eucharist, therefore, the Church perpetually reconstitutes the crisis in which the Kingdom of God came in history. It never gets beyond this. At each Eucharist we are there—we are in the night in which He was betrayed, at Golgotha, before the empty tomb on Easter day, and in the upper room where He appeared; and we are at the moment of His coming, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, in the twinkling of an eye at the last trump. Sacramental communion is not a purely mystical experience to which history, as embodied in the form and matter of the Sacrament, would be in the last resort irrelevant; it is bound up with a corporate memory of real events. History has been taken up into the suprahistorical, without ceasing to be history.

NEW BOOKS IN OUR CHURCH LIBRARY

Grimes. The Rebirth of the Laity

The story of the laity's part in the Christian faith. Here is one of the best summaries of the role of the layman in the church.

Howe. The Miracle of Dialogue

For dialogue to take place there must be a meeting of meaning between persons. This book provides the principle and shows the barriers that stop effective communication.

Jaspers. Myth and Christianity

This is a dialogue between Carl Jaspers and Rudolph Buttman concerning "demythologizing" the New Testament.

Niles. Upon the Earth

Here is the story of the mission of God and the missionary enterprise of the churches.

Stowe. When Faith Meets Faith

The story of what happens when religions confront one another. How does Christianity meet the claims of other religious faiths?

Two new books that will greatly aid you in understanding the theology of the Old and New Testaments have been placed in our library in memory of Elizabeth Heth:

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT by Alan Richardson offers a guide to the complete range of New Testament thought as it is in tune with modern critical study.

THEOLOGY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT by Edmond Jacob is an excellent treatment of the important advances in the field of Old Testament thought by an eminent Biblical scholar.

Both of these books will help you to understand and interpret the thought in the Old and New Testaments.

LETTER FROM RICHARD MILK

Oh happy day, Oh happy day, when Jesus washed my sins away! Hallelujah!

God is marvelously wonderful. This morning as I sit for a moment in my study, and reflect upon the great wonders of God and his mercy, there are three special items of praise and of thanksgiving to Him.

The first is gratitude to God for: the support by prayers, gifts, and letters from churches and people like Trinity. I feel deeply grateful and honored that out of your busy lives, you have taken time to write warm letters of encouragement and appreciation.

We do hope that there will be an opportunity at some future date for some of you to visit Durango. We now have three flights a week from Monterey, as well as three flights a week from Mexico City. In any event any member of Trinity Church would be most welcome to visit us, and to give a first hand account of the activities and environment of the work which you are supporting here.

The second basis for deep thanks to God are the doors of opportunity that have opened for service. Looking ahead at my schedule for the next four months, I find every day and every week filled with different activities—activities that challenge, each one presenting an opportunity of witness for our Lord. True, there are some doors closed to us, but there are so many that have been opened that we have no time to bemoan those that are still closed.

The third great basis of thanksgiving and gratitude is a sense of accomplishment. We do feel that we have some harvest to show now for the two years invested here. We can see definite progress in the growth and atmosphere and fervor of the Durango Church. The distribution of literature suitable for rural community development has obtained a response far in excess of our original expectations. The plan for the improvement of parsonages and facilities for rural pastors and their work is going at full speed. Two parsonages have been constructed and dedicated, and in both congregations a new sense of fervor and witness can be noticed because of these ministerial homes which provide an adequate home base for these rural pastors. A program for short courses is in the planning stage for several during the year. Within two weeks I shall be in a ten-day rural institute in the northern part of the state of Zacatecas helping the Disciples of Christ ministers in a larger parish circuit there. The demonstrations projects and the simple experimental plots have revealed several very valuable facts about the proper application of limited water and adequate fertilization in this area of limited rainfall.

Please accept my heartfelt thanks for your friendship, for your loyal support, and for your keen interest. May God richly bless all the members of Trinity Church as you perform a task of witness there in that strategic capital city of the great state of Florida. Until we do have the privilege of greeting personally someone from Trinity, I am

Ever yours in the service of the Master,
Richard G. Milk

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP.

Let us prepare ourselves for worship by our meditation on these words of Jeremy Taylor:

"Read not much at a time; but meditate on what you read as much as your time, capacity, and disposition will give you leave; ever remembering that little reading and much thinking, little speaking and much hearing, frequent and short prayers and great devotion, is the best way to be wise, to be holy, to be devout."

Almighty God, our living and most generous heavenly Father, whose delight it is to save that which is lost; we acknowledge unto Thee faults and the cowardice and mistrust of our own hearts. We have resisted and despised Thy glorious will. We have not dared to do the things which Thou didst bid us do. O God, vouchsafe Thy grace to change our character. Destroy our sins by Thy forgiveness. Create within us true desire for that new way of life revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord; and grant, beloved Father, that in Him we may henceforward live unselfish, brave, and noble lives to the honor of Thy holy name, which to us is Love. MOTION PICTURE ON MARTIN LUTHER

With the coming of Reformation Day, October 31, 1964, we will be showing the great film, "Martin Luther," at our evening worship services. This film will be shown in three parts:

Part I: THE NINETY-FIVE THESES, begins with Luther's entry into the monastery and continues through his posting of the Theses.—Oct. 18, at 7:30 P.M., in the Fellowship Hall.

Part II: BY FAITH ALONE includes the Leipzig debates and the historic "I will not recant."—October 25, at 7:30 P.M., in the Fellowship Hall.

Part III: CHAMPIONS OF THE FAITH describes Luther's stay at the Wartburg Castle, the spreading of the Reformation, and the Augsburg Confession.—Nov. 1, at 7:30 P.M., in the Fellowship Hall.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND!

DID YOU KNOW?

During the month of September, Mrs. Florence Jackson, our church hostess, served 1546 people at a cost of $516.26.

Fifty-eight cars brought 205 persons to the Picnic at Killearn Gardens on September 29.

RECITAL

Two of our members, Ronald Waln, bassoonist, and Charlotte Reinke, Soprano, will present a Faculty Recital this coming Monday evening, October 12, 8:15 P.M., at Opperman Music Hall. The program is open to the public without charge and all Trinity members are invited to attend.

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Our Communion offering Sunday amounted to $200.93. If you were "rained in" you may still send your gift to the office or use an envelope next Sunday which you plainly mark Communion Offering.

A very loyal group came to church and Sunday School last Sunday. Although our attendances were off, they were very good considering the weather. To have such a congregation on so disagreeable a day is enough to gladden any minister's heart.

We were to have begun an attendance campaign running through Thanksgiving. However, we will try to get a better start this Sunday. Our goal is for every member to be present for at least one service each Sunday. Please be sure to sign an attendance registration card at each service as we will use these cards to mark our attendance record.

My sermon this Sunday will be on "The Love of God." Be thinking about what this title means or says to you. See you in Church Sunday, I hope!

OPPORTUNITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

Trinity offers a well-rounded program of Education and Music training for persons of all ages. Such a program is of special importance to children and young people. Please don't take the matter of Sunday School attendance and choir training for your children lightly. School is not exactly a cherished activity for some young people, but we make sure that they get there and that they are usually prepared. If parents and teachers take their responsibility seriously our children will also receive satisfactory religious training. Attend Sunday School and Church every Sunday as a family. See that the entire family knows of the opportunities for service and personal growth which are offered through the choir program, and you will be surprised at the happy experiences awaiting you. The opportunity is here, the responsibility is yours.

MYF CALLING FOR HELP!

The MYF groups are asking for any games such as checkers, chess, etc., which are not being used by the Trinity families, to be donated for a recreation room for the youth. Please bring these games to the church office and help the MYF'ers.

TO MAKE CHRIST KNOWN

The Discipline of The Methodist Church summarizes the goal of the churches missionary program with these words: "The supreme aim of Missions is to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all peoples in all lands as their divine Saviour, to persuade them to become his disciples, and to gather these disciples into Christian churches; to enlist them in the building of the Kingdom of God; to cooperate with these churches; to promote world Christian fellowship; and to bring to bear on all human life the spirit and principles of Christ."

In trying to carry out this lofty directive the Methodist Church lifts up the Lord Jesus Christ as the divine Saviour of all men in forty-eight countries on five continents. Participating in this "gentle persuasion" are 1501 commissioned missionaries overseas; 97 commissioned missionaries in the United States; 378 commissioned deaconesses; 101 special term missionaries overseas; 50 special term missionaries in the United States, and 22 missionaries under special assignment.

Associated with these missionaries and deaconesses are hundreds of paid national workers, men and women committed to a world-wide ministry to the whole man. The diversity of their skills and talents has its focus on Jesus Christ.

We have been hearing about "new frontiers," but the church is concerned about an old frontier and this frontier is defined in terms of people. Where the people are there the church must be. This takes in the United States as well as the world. Except in name and certain formalities life in the United States can hardly be characterized as embodying the principles of Christ. We must come to a new realization of America as a mission field.

Never has the program of the Board of Missions been so varied as it is now. Never have there been opportunities for so many activities. Never has the world so needed the Christian gospel. Were the Board to meet current requests for help from all lands, a minimum budget of $50 million annually would be necessary (the present annual budget is $34 million).

Trinity Church carried in the budget a total of $30,000 for benevolent purposes. Additional gifts are solicited for specific projects such as supporting the Richard E. Milk family in Mexico. The annual offering for the Milk Fund will be received on November 22. Five thousand dollars is our minimum goal for this fund. Your support is needed and we urge you to be considering your gift.

Accomplishing the aim of missions requires of every Methodist . . . Constant prayer for the missionary work of the church . . . faithful financial support . . . study of the biblical and theological bases and meaning of the missionary task. You can help "to make Christ known" with your prayers, your study, your gifts and the witness of your example.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION. To Be Offered by Minister and People

Almighty and eternal God, who searchest the hearts of men, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against Thee in thought, word and deed; that we have not loved Thee with all our heart and soul, with all our mind and strength; and that we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We confess, O God, that we too often have gone hungry rather than partake of the bread Thou hast sent; we have loved ourselves more than Christ, and have sought our own way rather than His way. In Thy eternal mercy and truth hear our prayer, direct what we shall be, that we may henceforth walk in the way of Thy commandments, and do those things which are worthy in Thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SERVICE OF CHOIR DEDICATION.

Minister: Just as our choir members have declared their purpose to make worship reverent, meaningful, and beautiful by their sincere dedication of themselves to God and His Church, we too should acknowledge our responsibility to encourage them in their task, and to do our part to make each hour of worship an inspiring sacrament of praise and beauty.

Congregation: We dedicate ourselves to the sincere worship of God. In penitence and humility, with charity and hope, with gratitude and joy, we would yield ourselves to God's spirit, that our lives might more surely be empowered of Him.

Unison Prayer: Father, help us all to be worthy of our debt to Thee and of our obligation to one another. Let us support each other in worship and service to the end that the name of God shall be exalted. Help us to surrender ourselves so completely to thy holy will that there shall be no thought of personal glory, but rather let all that is done be done to the honor and glory of thy holy name. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our current Mission Study will hold its last session in the Circles of the Woman's Society, October 19-20. Circle secretaries of Missionary Education will be leaders.

"Most enjoyable and inspirational," were some of the comments about the Fiesta on Oct. 8. Rev. Manuel Viera, Cuban pastor, said, "Exquisite!" Splendid messages were brought by him and by Rev. Morrell Robinson, formerly a Methodist missionary in Cuba. Together these men minister to Spanish-speaking people in Tampa. 160 people attended the Fiesta and an offering of $80.30 was received for Holding Institute, Laredo, Texas, a Methodist School for Mexican young people.

59 persons in varied capacities worked toward the presentation of this inspiring and colorful Mission Study.

METHODIST MEN

The Methodist Men will meet Thursday night, October 22, at 6:30 P.M., in the Fellowship Hall for supper. Mr. Godfrey Smith will share with the men some of his experiences on his recent trip to Russia. All of the men of Trinity are cordially invited. Please make your reservation before Wednesday.

LAYMEN'S DAY — 1964

Christianity would never have survived without laymen. Indeed it never would have come to life without them. Jesus was a layman. He was not one of the religious hierarchy of his time. He was not a member of the Sanhedrin. His father was a carpenter and His best friends were people whom he met on the streets—on the lake shore—in the homes—in the churches—at the wedding feasts—at funerals. He was a young man who recognized parental authority and government under a rule of law.

Early Christianity was spread across the Roman Empire by laymen who translated the gospel into terms of daily living. This is still the most vital task of the active churchman. The Protestant Reformation had its genesis in Luther's concept of "the priesthood of all believers." Many of the great preachers and circuit riders of the Wesleyan revival were dedicated laymen.

So today—the church that meets its fullest responsibilities is the product of the devotion and constant effort of the "Lay Ministry." Without loyal teachers the church school would be non-existent. Without faithful women the great missionary enterprise would collapse. Without sacrificial stewardship the essential financial support would be missing.

Great churches are not mere buildings regardless of how fine the architecture or how luxurious the appointments. They are made important by the service they render and the moral and spiritual leadership they offer to the community.

They can accomplish these objectives only through the devotion of dedicated laymen. In writing to the Corinthians, Paul announced the challenge:

"Moreover, it is required of stewards that a man be found faithful."

PRAYER OF CONFESSION. To Be Offered by Minister and People

O Lord, Holy and righteous God, we acknowledge before Thee that we do not love Thee above all else. We do not delight in prayer as we should, and we run away from Thy Word. We do not share the liberty of Thy children. We waste the time which Thou hast given us. We do not really love our neighbors, and we are too much interested in ourselves. We are not always good-tempered, and we are often vain and touchy. We take advantage of other people's hard work. Our hearts are divided, pierced through by doubts and guilty desires. We therefore lay our shabby selves bare before Thee, O our God. Forgive us with such love of Jesus that at least some part of our lives may be really renewed. In His name we pray.

Amen.

FILM. "MARTIN LUTHER"

Part II. "By Faith Alone"

This second part shows the results of Luther's attack on the indulgences. For his provocation the church seeks to charge Brother Martin with heresy. At Leipzig, Luther debates with John Eck in a thrilling give and take that cost Luther his monastic vows.

But Luther became more convinced than ever before that the Holy Scriptures and right reason was the only rule of faith and this provided him with the courage to face his trial at Worms with his classical statement of faith and courage: "I will not recant . . . Here I Stand."
