"Holy Communion as Renewal of Covenant"

A member of a Confirmation Class once asked during the session on the Holy Communion, "What are we supposed to be doing when we go down there and kneel?" Perhaps older candidates and even church members have often wanted to ask this question, possibly in somewhat more sophisticated form.

The answer given to the child was that we should kneel and pray, praying with a certain openness of mind, heart and soul, and asking the Living Lord to come more fully into our lives. The further explanation was given that as we receive the bread and wine into our bodies, we are to let this represent the reception of the Living Christ into our lives.

If will doubtless be helpful if we follow the idea of Covenant and consider the Service of Holy Communion as a renewal of our Covenant with God, even a new declaration and act of obedience. There is no doubt of our need for renewal, although we may vary in the degree and intensity of renewal. For some renewal is the regaining of lost ground; for others the sustaining of worth in the daily round; for still others the ascent to higher realizations of God's love and grace. For all the key of renewal is obedience—obedience to the commandment of love.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Carol Bandlow, one of Trinity's fine youth, was elected secretary of the Florida Conference MYF last week at Officers Assembly. We are proud of Carol for this distinction and commend her for the excellent leadership she has given the past two summers at the MYF Camp in Leesburg.

MUSIC NOTE

It is customary at Trinity for the Chancel Choir to be relieved from its music responsibilities in the month of August. During this period worship services will be provided by ensembles and soloists. Singing members of the congregation are urged to come to the choir loft to assist the congregation in the singing of the hymns and to lead in the group and responsive readings. A significant service can be performed by so doing. In the meantime, we wish for each of the Chancel Choir singers a restful and pleasant vacation.

THE PRINCIPLE OF UNITY

"The principle of unity which saves our guilty world, wherein all is in process of returning to dust, is Christ. Through the force of his magnetism, the light of his ethical teaching, the unitive power of his very being, Jesus establishes again at the heart of the world the harmony of all endeavours and the convergence of all beings. Let us read the gospel boldly and we shall see that no idea can better convey to our minds the redemptive function of the Word than that of a unification of all flesh in one and the same Spirit.

Jesus clothed His divine personality alike in the most palpable and in the most inward beauty and charm of human individuality. He adorned his humanity with the most enchanting and captivating splendours of the universe. And then He came amongst us and showed Himself to us as that which we could never have thought to see: the synthesis of all perfections so that now each man must of necessity see Him and feel His presence, and must either hate or love what he sees. . . ."

VOICES OF OUR CHRISTIAN HERITAGE

A Word From the Lord

"The problem of man is not that God does not speak to him: God does speak to everyone who has a human countenance. For this is what makes him man. He who is not able to perceive something ultimate, something infinitely significant, is not a man. Man is man because he is able to receive a word from the dimensions of the eternal. The question is not that mankind has not received any word from the Lord; the question is that it has been received and resisted and distorted."

Mrs. Mallie Slater and Miss Madeline Wilson are attending the Southeastern Jurisdiction Leadership School which is being held this week, August 7-14, at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina.

SMALL PRAYER AND STUDY GROUPS

There are a number of persons in our congregation who have expressed a desire to become a part of a small "koinonia" prayer and/or study group. The renewal of the church through a clearer understanding of Christ's redemptive love can be encountered in these small groups. Several are now in existence.

If you have any desire to become a part of such a group, please phone the church membership secretary, Mrs. Harry Miley, or indicate such on your registration card.

BON VOYAGE

This is the time of year when we have many people moving into our city and we welcome our newcomers with open arms—at the same time we lose some of our good members to other cities.

Mrs. G. C. Hodge, who has been a member of Trinity for almost 30 years moved to Panama City, Florida, last week.

The Reverend and Mrs. Ray Carson and family, who have been affiliated with Trinity while in Tallahassee for graduate work at FSU, are leaving this week. They expressed to us their appreciation for the association with Trinity Church and its members and staff.

We regret to see Mrs. Hodge and the Carsons go, however, we wish them God-speed and will look forward to their return visits.

"COMMANDED TO LOVE"

On recent Sundays we have been seeking to understand our relationship with God in terms of Covenant, and have realized the mutuality involved in Covenant. Man's side of the agreement is his obedience, by which he both enters and remains in Covenant with God.

We find the nature of our obedience brought into sharper focus by the two Great Commandments, our Lord's summary of the law. The strength of these Commandments is very great for us; first, because of their deep Biblical rootage; second, because of the authority of Jesus himself; third, because of the authenticity of the Commandments in their ready appeal to our minds and consciences.

While it seems relatively easy for us to understand what it means to love our neighbor, it is somewhat more difficult to comprehend the meaning of our loving God. Both theological and psychological elements contribute to this difficulty. The sermon is intended to be a contribution toward understanding and obeying this Great Commandment of our Lord.

"COMMANDED TO LOVE"

"The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" (Mark 12:31)

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another." (John 13:34)

Jesus combined the commandment to love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength (Deuteronomy 6:4-5) with the commandment from Leviticus 19:18 — "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."—to provide us with a summary of all the law and prophets.

To receive the full impact of this commandment, we must associate it with the New Covenant idea of Jeremiah—"I will write it upon their hearts"—and with the insights of spiritual and ethical inwardness so often and so fully expressed in the teachings of Jesus. This internalizing of principle and commitment leads into the place of motive and becomes an active ingredient in the dynamics of behavior and personality. Love, so conceived, becomes more than law, and is a deep and powerful principle controlling all we are and do.

"THE GOOD SAMARITAN IN DISREPUTE"

The parables of Jesus are peopled with interesting personalities, known to us not by names but by primary characteristics. The best known of all these is the Good Samaritan, and his parable is probably most often told and referred to.

But in these days the Good Samaritan has come upon some disrepute, and is no longer emulated so easily as in former and simpler times. One explanation for this is the widespread tendency to non-involvement prevailing among us. Nearly everyone has heard the shocking story of "38 Witnesses," and doubtless some of us know of episodes nearer home. Another explanation is our increasing dependence upon professional Good Samaritans, functionaries who dispense public charity, social workers, and case minded government agents.

If this trend prevails and deepens the Good Samaritan fades more and more into the background, we are steadily de-personalized, and Orwell's 1984 gets here ahead of schedule.

Somehow the Good Samaritan must make a comeback. The only way he can do this is to come alive in the hearts and minds of true followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave him to us in the first place.

NEW MEMBERS

We are happy to receive several new members into our Church at the close of our Eleven O'Clock Service today. Those coming from other denominations will respond I will to this vow:

"Will you be loyal to the Methodist Church, and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, and your service?"

When the group is presented and commended to the congregation, the people shall say:

"We rejoice to recognize you as members of Christ's holy Church. With you we renew our vows to uphold it by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, and our service."

THE SEASON OF KINGDOMTIDE

The last Sunday in August begins the season of the Christian Year known as Kingdomtide. It represents to us the reign of the Kingdom of God begun in Jesus Christ and the fulfilling of God's purposes in our lives. The color used on the paraments and the ministers' stoles is green, which signifies, with this prominent color of nature, the hope of everlasting life and the continual growth of the Christian in his pilgrimage to that Celestial City of God.

HOLY COMMUNION NEXT SUNDAY

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at both of our Morning Services on next Sunday, September 5.
