COMMUNION MEDITATION—

“THE FOOD OF THE SOUL”

It has been inevitable that we should understand and interpret the reality of our souls through analogies with the body. Thus in the Bible the health, hunger and satisfaction of the soul are often spoken of. A good sample from the Old Testament is Psalm 107:9: “For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.” The New Testament has more examples, such as, “Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.”

The Gospel of John does not have a story of the establishment of the Lord's Supper as do the other three gospels. In its sixth chapter, however, is the story of the feeding of the multitude followed by a strong and interesting sequel in which Jesus interprets himself as “the bread of life.” One central saying is verse 35: “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.”

The Communion Meditation for this Sunday will be based upon the thought of the appetites of our souls with special use of the sayings of our Lord in John 6.

CHOIR NOTE

For information concerning the choir program at Trinity pick up a choir brochure from the literature rack in the narthex, or talk with one of the choir directors. It will be noted that several changes have been made in rehearsal times and choirs. The first rehearsals of the youth and children's choirs will be held on Thursday, September 9, and Sunday, September 12. Fine choirs are an expression of a vital church, and we need to have at least twenty percent of Trinity's membership singing in a choir. How about you?

"IDENTIFICATION AND INVOLVEMENT"

The sermon for this Sunday morning is the first of a series of four on the general subject of "Identification and Involvement." Other sermons with dates are:

September 19—"OUR IDENTIFICATION AND INVOLVEMENT WITH CHRIST"

September 26—"OUR IDENTIFICATION AND INVOLVEMENT WITH THE CHURCH"

October 10—"INVOLVEMENT IN MANKIND"

The introductory sermon will seek to show that the realization of genuine and continuing identity as a Christian demands deeper involvement than we are most frequently willing to enter. But cheap identity, like the "cheap grace" of Bonhoeffer's teaching fails to produce the authentic person. The four sermons will be a genuine series each one in content sequel to the preceding.

Young Reader's Bible

Five years of planning and work have gone into the production of this Bible especially for young people. Every possible effort has been made to provide a Bible with features that will make Bible reading more enjoyable, easier, and clearer. All special material, such as introductions, summaries, and study helps, has been written within the vocabulary range of children yet not written in childish language. The untraditional, extra-large page size of this Bible, with its sturdy, attractive binding, provides ample space, not only for the many colorful illustrations and special features, but extra-wide margins for note-making. This is a Bible truly designed for the young reader and student.

A copy of this Bible is in the Church Library and in each room of 3rd through 6th graders. The price is $4.95 when ordered in quantities. Orders are now being taken by Miss Wilson, DCE.

Sermon Preview

"FINDING OUR IDENTITY IN CHRIST"

One of the enrichments of Christian faith obtainable from the writings of St. Paul is the idea of the "Indwelling Christ," designated by Albert Schweitzer as "Christ-Mysticism." The simplest statement of the concept is in Galatians 2:20: "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me."

The real question the modern Christian asks is whether or not the designation represents a reproducible substance for Christian experience. Is this something which can happen to us? Or is it a peculiar way of describing a mystical experience limited to religious geniuses or saints?

Apparently the Apostle believed that it is a substantive reproducible experience available to all faithful followers of Christ. He wrote to the Ephesians to say that he was praying for them "that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith" (Ephesians 3:16). He also wrote to the Corinthians to say, "Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?" (II Corinthians 13:5).

This sermon will seek first to set forth the idea of the "Indwelling Christ"; second, to defend the possibility of our knowing the reality, and, third, to give it a place in our larger Christian experience.

Sermon Preview

"OUR IDENTIFICATION AND INVOLVEMENT IN THE CHURCH"

When the Apostle Paul characterized the Church as the "Body of Christ," he gave us an insight into the nature and function of the Church which has intrigued Bible students and theologians through the centuries. More recently theologians involved in the Ecumenical Movement have sought to recover and develop a theology of the Church. This Pauline doctrine of the Church remains central in their thinking.

As in most approaches toward interpreting a doctrine there are those who take a "high" way and those who follow a "low" road. The former consider that the Church as the Body of Christ may be regarded as an "extension of the incarnation," whereas the latter insist that the phrase Body of Christ is only an illuminating metaphor. Whichever way we go, we will follow St. Paul in allowing the Church a high place in our personal beliefs and commitment.

The Apostle writes that we severally take our places of privilege and responsibility as members of this Body. He writes that we are "members in particular." This suggested particularity of our involvement brings us to the heart of the meaning of Church membership.

Mr. Bill Hammond, student of Recreation at FSU, has been employed part-time as an assistant to the director of Christian education in the field of recreation. Bill will be available to all groups on each Friday night, Saturday, and Sunday.

We plan Confirmation Classes for young people and adults to begin next Sunday, October 3. The youth classes will be held during the MYF time. The adult group will meet at a time mutually agreeable to its members and instructor, Mr. Floyd.

MUSIC NOTE

It isn't likely that there ever will be a LAST call for singers for our church choirs, for membership will always be open to those who wish to sing. But we do urge singers to become active participants in a choir NOW as the fall training program begins so that your contribution will be most effective.

We need pianists to accompany choir rehearsals! Please call or see Mrs. John Crotty or Mr. Walter James and volunteer your services.
