"EVEN SO, COME, LORD JESUS" — Revelations 22:20.

These words from the Revelation of St. John are, except for the benediction, the very last words of the Bible. They are most appropriate as a basis for our Communion Meditation on this first Sunday of Advent.

While Christianity builds upon certain events of history, it goes further back in its theology to claim that these events are acts of God, and therefore representative of his nature and will. As events in time they are dramatizations of eternal truth.

We say that in Jesus, the Christ of God came to earth. An interesting way of saying it is that earth is a "heaven visited planet."

But this all represents a reality which is always in being and happening. God is always coming to his people. Advent is not a once for all event, but a forever happening. Our faith response, our hospitality, thereby becomes a vital factor in our Advent experience.

A benefit Coffee, sponsored by Church Women United, for migrant work, will be held at John Wesley Methodist Church on Friday, December 6, 10:00 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. This is an annual project to raise funds for Christmas gifts for migrant children and their families.

ADVENT WORSHIP IN THE HOME

Sunday is the first Sunday in Advent. Throughout the Children's Division of our Church School Advent wreaths will be lighted in preparation for celebration of the coming of the Christ. At the same time children will be bringing home paper suggesting services for families to have together each Sunday and on Christmas day. Many have found this to be a meaningful tradition. We suggest that if you have not done so that you begin this tradition in your home this year. Copies of worship suggestion will be found in the narthex.

"THE NEVER-ENDING KINGDOM"

"... and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Luke 1:33

One of the more interesting features of the Gospel according to Luke is the collection of poems and songs surrounding the birth stories of Jesus. These include angelic Annunciations, the Magnificat of Mary and the Benedictus of Simeon.

The brief text is from the Annunciation to Mary, and is an angelic affirmation of triumph for the King who is to be born of Mary. This note of victory is sounded in all these songs. Indeed it is found throughout the New Testament. To read them brings joy to the heart of a Christian. In days of discouragement this note comes as a sound from heaven.

But has it proven so in history? Does God bring forth great things out of small beginnings? Does he turn defeat into victory? The survival value of the church and the spread of Christianity seem strongly to argue the affirmative.

But our final argument — both to our own faltering hearts and to the sceptical world — goes beyond history and finds its dimensions and its dynamic in the realm of faith. We carry an ultimate concern, and our dependence is upon an ultimate response.

BISHOP HENLEY TO PREACH

We are pleased to have Bishop James W. Henley preach for us at both our Morning Services this Sunday. He will be in the Tallahassee District over the week end making annual visits to parsonage families in the first year of their appointment to their respective charges.

Bishop Henley is in his ninth year as overseer of the Florida area. Until recently this area included Cuba, and now includes the Florida Conference, Central Jurisdiction, and all former E.U.B. Churches in Florida. During the administrative leadership of Bishop Henley the Florida Conference has grown to approximately 300,000 members, its churches have expended millions of dollars in capital funds, raised very large sums for missions, and achieved a notable record in its work with Cuban exiles in Dade county and elsewhere. Also under his leadership the area office was moved from Jacksonville to Lakeland where other Conference offices and Florida Southern College are located.

APPRECIATION

Our sincere appreciation to all those who presented the Cantata, "The Divine Mystery," by Gomer, on last Sunday. The presentation was impressive and worshipful. Attendance by our people was improved in members over recent past services, and all seemed happy in the experience.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH CHOIRS

Our Children and Youth Choirs will present a Christmas Service on next Sunday at 5:00 P.M. Please note the earlier hour.

CHRISTMAS FAMILY FELLOWSHIP DINNER

EVENING SERVICE

The Evening Service will be a modern dramatic reading of the Nativity, entitled, "A Child Is Born." It points out the futility of mankind's renunciation of God's purpose for us in life in favor of materialistic pursuits and ambitions. We ask you to support, by your presence, our youth in their endeavor to bring a word to you at this Advent season!

EVENING YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

Due to the evening worship services for December 15 and 22, there will be no regular meeting of the M.Y.F. for the next two weeks. The youth do plan to go caroling on Sunday night, December 22, after the choir program. More information will be made available in next week's bulletin regarding the caroling. We encourage all youth and their parents to attend the evening worship services for the Advent season!

"THE LIGHT SHINES IN DARKNESS"

*"In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it."* John 1:4 and 5 (RSV).

The Prologue to the Gospel of John serves as a kind of overture to the Gospel and introduces the grand themes which are to be sounded over and over again in this great work. The major theme is life, the life that is in Christ and the life that he gives to his followers. Among the metaphors of life so richly used by the evangelist is the very old one of light. One of the more interesting combinations of concept and symbol is in our text.

The last verb of the text is variously translated: "comprehended it not" (KJV); "apprehended it not" (ASV); "has not overcome it" (RSV). Goodspeed make the last sentence to read, "The Light is still shining in the darkness, for the darkness has never put it out."

This Light must first be regarded as Christ himself, even as he said, "I am the light of the world." The sermon will affirm that all the world's darkness has not put out this light.

This Christ has also said to his followers, "You are the light of the world," and has bidden us, "Let your light so shine." The sermon will hold up the glorious possibility of our becoming illumined persons through the grace of Christ.

"THE AFTERMATH OF CHRISTMAS"

"Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

Luke 18-17

Christmas has come and gone. New Year's approaches and we continue to face more celebration. Some of us attempt to settle down to some normalcy in the routine of our lives. But what has Christmas meant to us?

This question is simple enough. But it has profound meaning and implication for the Christian. The remnants of Christmas shall tremendously convey who we are and what we do in the year ahead. This sermon will attempt to survey what we have felt and experienced as a result of the holidays. We will look to see, as a result of this survey, what this means in our lives. May the possibilities of the continuing splendor of Christmas touch us enough to carry it throughout the New Year!
