COMMUNION MEDITATION "COMMUNION EXTENDED"

"So if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Matthew 5:24

In this verse from the Sermon on the Mount our Lord is following the prophets and the best in Hebrew religion when he makes our worship and our human relations inseparable in the fabric of life. There is an old and strong tendency in us to rend the fabric and wholly separate the two. We like our religion more of the priestly sort and are not usually hospitable to the prophetic disturber of our consciences.

We are fortunate if our devotional sensitivity is such that we can experience the divine presence at Communion. It could be, however, that this very sensitivity depends deeply upon the ethical level of our general life. Prayer at Church and our practices in life are meant to be of a piece. This is more than a mutuality or a feed-back from one area of life to the other. The search for goodness and the search for God come together in us. The search for meaning and the search for the soul seem to be the same search. We come to Communion in this enclosed Sanctuary, but also in the larger Sanctuary of Life.

“WHEN GOD IS ENEMY”

One of the great thinkers of our century has taught us that personal religious development moves up through three stages: God the Void; God the Enemy; God the Companion. But when we achieve the third stage there are times when one of the others is still with us. Even the mystics have their times of spiritual emptiness or dryness. And it is obvious that no human being ever reaches the place where he is beyond the judgment of God.

This sermon is about the prophetic judgment of God upon all of us, individuals, nations, churches, every institution and every human relation. Several episodes of prophetic encounter from the Old Testament will be the basis for the development of the sermon. One of these is between the prophet Nathan and King David; two are between the prophet Elijah and King Ahab. The different responses of the two kings will be noted.

It is natural that we be inhospitable to judgment of any sort. It is understandable that we delay its coming or seek to avoid it altogether. We succeed in this about as well as the ancient Hebrews. We seek to individualize and sentimentalize the authentic message of the Bible and thereby pull its teeth. We pull the Church under into our culture, immersing it and muting its voice.

The sermon will attempt to show that judgment and redemption go together, and that those who avoid judgment cannot know redemption.

FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS: CONCLUDING MISSION STUDY SESSION

This evening's session will be led by a panel of Trinity members discussing the practical implications for our church and community of the facts we have considered in the study of The Encounter of the Faiths.

NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED TODAY

We are happy to receive a number of new members into our Church this Sunday at the Eleven O'Clock Service. Following the Service there will be a brief reception in Fellowship Hall honoring these new members.

OUR NEXT MEMBERSHIP SUNDAY

Although we will arrange to receive members individually or by families at any regular Service, our next large group will be received on Palm Sunday, April 7th. Those now in our Confirmation Classes will be received into full membership on that day at a special Evening Service.

THE METHODIST CHURCH AND THE NEGRO

A paper under this title, first delivered by Dr. Foster at the Tallahassee District Conference, has been mimeographed and is available in limited quantities without cost. Every member of our Church should inform himself of developments at Annual, Jurisdictional, and General Conference levels. This paper is an introduction to these developments.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The monthly Board meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild will be held on Wednesday, February 14th, at 7:30 P.M., in the Conference Room.

BE OUR GUEST!

All members of Trinity are invited to dinner. And you have the choice of four evenings, March 25, 26, 27, and 28. You will get a letter inviting you. And later a visit or telephone call. You simply can't decline. Plan now!

NEW NAME FOR TITHING!

Christian Stewardship often stumbles on tithing, which has been traditionally and rigidly fixed at 10%. Somebody with a bright mind and flexible spirit has now come up with the idea of "percentage giving" as the vital principle. You choose a percentage more or less than 10%, and then let your giving go up and down with your income. Seems like a good idea. We invite you to try it with us.

SERMON NEXT SUNDAY — "IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?"

The sermon for next Sunday, February 18, originally had the title, "Where Do You Get Your Ecstasy?" This one has now been escalated to sub-title and now the sermon is headed, "Is This Trip Necessary?" It will still be about ecstasy and where you get it. Also about how much you need.

Sermon Preview

"IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?"

"I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven — Whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows."

II Corinthians 12:2

This sermon is to be about ecstasy in human experience. Its original title was, "Where Do You Get Your Ecstasy?" It will seek to relate the present growing practice of inducing ecstasy through various drugs to the general human experience of ecstatic experiences.

The Bible, both Old and New Testament, knows much about unusual mental and emotional experiences, of visions, of speaking in tongues, and of other abnormal manifestations. These phenomena have continued in Church history, especially in Camp Meetings and among holiness groups. Some of us have descended from "shouting Methodists," and are proud of it.

Why are so many people, especially students and other younger persons, resorting to drugs for mind expansion, euphoria and forms of excitement? Some students of this problem suggest "metaphysical emptiness," a loss of life meaning, or a break down of values.

The sermon will contend that normal living with active religious faith, good family relations, friends, satisfying work, all these yield a sense of well-being, even euphoria, to the full level of our needs.

ADULT FORUM:

THAT THE WORLD MAY BELIEVE

One of the outstanding Methodist leaders in the field of Ecumenical thought and work for many years is Dr. Albert Outler of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University. In addition to his work in American Ecumenical circles, Dr. Outler was one of the Methodist Delegates to Vatican II. Now in the Book, That the World May Believe, he has written for Methodists on the vital subject of the Ecumenical movement. This book, for Methodists, by a Methodist, about the Methodist concern for Ecumenism, will be the subject of our adult forum tonight, led by Mr. Edwards.

JURISDICTIONAL W.S.C.S. IN BIRMINGHAM

The Annual Meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Southeastern Jurisdiction will meet in Birmingham February 21-23. WEDNESDAY NOON SERVICES IN LENT

Expanding the Holy Week Noon services of last year which were so well received, we will have a brief devotional service each Wednesday in Lent, in the Glenn James Memorial Chapel. Services will be led by our own Pastors and other Methodist Minister of Tallahassee.

To accommodate those who wish to come during lunch hour from downtown offices, our service will begin promptly at 12:15 P.M. and end at 12:45 P.M.

ANNUAL TEN-IN-ONE OFFERING

In order to avoid running into conflict with our Loyalty Dinners in March, we are asking for our Ten-in-One Offering this week. This offering always comes easily and quickly. Please continue your generous co-operation.

The Covenant Class is looking for new members. If interested in a middle aged married couples class, contact Tom or Julie Campbell in Room 312 any Sunday morning.

“I MOVE THE PREVIOUS QUESTION”

“. . . but first they gave themselves to the Lord.”

II Corinthians 8:5

The Apostle is preparing the Corinthians for a collection he is about to take. Like many another pastor he is encouraging them to generosity by pointing out what is being done in neighboring parishes, in this case, some of the Churches of Macedonia. In his statement he gives, wittingly or unwittingly, the basic requisite for giving to the Church, “. . . but first they gave themselves to the Lord.”

Indeed this is the basic requirement for all genuinely Christian action. It is a false alternative to place a personal gospel over against a social gospel. Christianity goes to seed in a pure individualism and loses its distinctiveness in the shallows of an over-emphasis on social matters. The most effective of prophetic reformers are men and women of deep personal commitment.

So it is in order to move the previous question, which is whether or not anyone has first given himself to the Lord. In all questions of stewardship and service, this is the previous question. In all questions of churchmanship, ministry, mission, this is the first question we must ask, of ourselves and of others.

O God, whose bounty to us is exceeded only by thy mercy; Condescend to us, we pray, as we make our confessions to thee. Thou hast made us for thyself and we have chosen to live for ourselves. Thou hast given us laws and we have preferred our own rules. Thou hast shown us the more excellent way and we have walked in lower paths. Thou hast bidden us seek first thy kingdom and we have sought a less demanding kingdom. Be thou merciful to us, we beseech thee, and by thy grace restore us to thy favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WEDNESDAY NOON SERVICES IN LENT

This Wednesday, Dr. George A. Foster, will give the first of six meditations in our Lenten series of noonday services. To accommodate those who wish to attend these services during their lunch hour, they will begin promptly at 12:15 P.M., and end at 12:45 P.M.

ADULT FORUM

The Adult Forum this evening and for several Sundays will consider matters relating to General Conference. The particular topic for this Sunday will be proposals from the General Board of Christian Social Concerns going to General Conference. You are invited to help us give grass roots to big doings at high levels.

YOU'RE GOING TO BE INVITED!

Yes, you're going to be invited to dinner and you will have a choice of four dates, March 25, 26, 27, 28. These will be our annual Loyalty Dinners. Save a date now, circle it on your calendar.

DR. FOSTER TO ATTEND GENERAL BOARD

Dr. Foster will attend the annual meeting of the General Board of Christian Social Concerns in San Antonio, Texas, for four days of this week. In his absence Mr. Edwards and Mr. Houglin will take care of all pastoral matters.

TEN-IN-ONE OFFERING

We are calling for our annual Ten-in-One Offering in February rather than March in order to avoid conflict with our Loyalty Dinners. Members of the Church have received a letter with envelope and envelopes are placed in the Bulletins at our Services today. Our people are accustomed to responding promptly and generously to this appeal.

TITHING TRIAL

Our Conference Board of Lay Activities invites you to try tithing from now until Pentecost. Why not? Many have tried it and have become convinced and committed. All we ask is a trial — plus thinking about it and praying about it.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The annual World Day of Prayer, sponsored by Church Women United, will be held on Friday, March 1st, at St. Paul's Methodist Church. The theme for this year's observance is "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens" (Gal. 6:2). Offerings will go to several worthy projects, including a national literacy program in the U. S., a training program for the all Africa Conference of Churches, special ministries to migrants in the U. S., and other worthy projects. Mrs. Taber Hamilton of St. John's Episcopal Church is in charge of the program.

GOT TO START THINKING!

We've got to start thinking about next Conference Year, especially about Quarterly Conference and elections. The Committee on Nominations will soon be meeting. Got any suggestions? We rotate, and this means new leadership in many positions. We're listening.
