COMMUNION MEDITATION

"GOD'S GOOD GIFT"

"If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him"
Luke 11:13

In the Gospel of Matthew (7:11) this verse reads "how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him." Supposing that Matthew is the earlier version and Luke a revision, we can imagine the latter coming to consider God's many good gifts and deciding that among these the Holy Spirit is among his greatest. Our Wesleyan forebears spoke often of "the gift of the Holy Spirit" as a sanctifying power in their lives.

It is more than appropriate that on Pentecost Sunday we think about this good gift of God, the Holy Spirit. Many people have difficulty in understanding the theology of the Holy Spirit. At the great risk of oversimplification, we suggest that we may find help in thinking of the Holy Spirit as the Presence and Power of God among us.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter James extend an invitation to all of their Trinity friends to attend the wedding of their daughter, Janice Lee, to Keith Alan Jowers, on Sunday, June the Ninth, at four o'clock in the Sanctuary.

CHOIR NOTE

Each summer, members of the congregation are urged to join the Summer Choir. This is an adult choir which provides leadership for the worship services during the months of June, July, and August. It is composed of members of the Chancel Choir, high school and university students, and church members who may not have time during the busy winter and spring seasons to sing in a choir, or timid singers who would just like to "try out" choir singing. We need thirty new singers. Rehearsals are held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 P.M. Come and praise God.

"A PASTOR'S PRAYER"

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all."

II Corinthians 13:14

As I preach this final sermon in the office of Associate Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, I want to make a summation of the Christian gospel, a statement of the actual meaning of the Trinity in our experience; and express the prayer of every Christian pastor for his people. I have chosen to use the text given above in which Paul is doing these things, as he writes to the Corinthians.

Iris joins me in thanking you all for these very wonderful two years at Trinity. It would be impossible to enumerate all the kindnesses showered on us and Lee. Be assured that we think often of each of you and hold you in our hearts as we go to our new field of service.

Perhaps the greatest accolade given anyone in the New Testament was that spoken of Barnabas when he was called, "A Son of Encouragement." It seems to me that Trinity is full of those who deserve this title. I take my leave with a fresh and deep sense of having been encouraged and helped by you all.

ANTHEM NOTE

The anthem this morning, "Is Ist Ein Kostlich Ding," comes from the music of the early American Moravian Church. To the Moravian musicians in America, Church music was the most profound and genuine expression of their inner lives. They had been through severe persecutions and their faith had become fixed on God and their Saviour, Jesus Christ. In their music the expression of that nearness to God, that faith and love, is simple, sincere, and poignant.

INVITATION TO TRINITY FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter James invite all of their Trinity friends to attend the wedding of their daughter, Judith Rae, to Wayne Cowart, on Saturday morning, June Fifteenth, at 7:30 A.M., at the James' home on the Old Quincy Highway.

“ONE THING IS NEEDFUL”

Most everyone will recognize that the sermon title is taken from our Lord's gentle rebuke of Martha who was “anxious and troubled about many things.” The one thing needful was a single minded devotion to the highest presence available.

This sermon will turn this word of Jesus into a search for a viable essential in the briefest form possible of the “law and the prophets.” This is an old search, resulting in forms of what we call the Golden Rule in almost every religion known to man. Jesus himself summed up the whole in the two Great Commandments, which he selected from the Old Testament.

When we study and analyze the attitude and teachings of Jesus thoroughly, we find that his expectation of us may be concentrated in the concept of “obedient love.” Both obedience and love are primary ingredients of our faith response to God's offer. When we are “anxious and troubled about many things,” our sure recovery is through our obedient love to God expressed in all our relations with man.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

We are a growing Church in a growing community. Why is it that our Sunday School attendance declines almost monthly? To say that this is happening everywhere across the country is not a sufficient answer. We must take a good long look at ourselves, class by class, teacher by teacher, and pupil by pupil.

WELCOME TO NEW ASSOCIATE PASTOR

We welcome to our Church our new Associate Pastor, The Reverend Ben W. Curry. He will occupy the parsonage at 205 Edwards Street. He is expected to share pastoral duties in general, but will have major responsibility for youth work.

EVENING SERVICE

Dark churches on Sunday Evenings present a strange and frightening phenomenon. What a waste of buildings! What a loss of talent! What a hindrance to the Kingdom! Let this come home to us at Trinity. Let's do something about it. First, let's fill the Glenn James Memorial Chapel. If we can do this during the summer, who knows what we may do in the fall?

MUSIC NOTE

Trinity members, high school and university students, our Summer Choir needs singers. Be a summer singer. Start this Wednesday at the 7:30 rehearsal in the Choir Room.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT TO PREACH

We welcome to our pulpit at both Morning Services this Sunday our District Superintendent, Dr. William W. Roughton. Dr. Roughton is beginning his third year as District Superintendent of the Tallahassee District.

The Tallahassee District is one of twelve districts of the Florida Annual Conference which covers all of the state except for the nine pan-handle counties west of the Apalachicola River. The Tallahassee District is one of the smallest in membership, but one of the largest in geographical expanse, reaching from Chattahoochee and Apalachicola on the west to Jasper, Live Oak, and Perry on the east.

The twelve district superintendents of the Conference, together with the Bishop, form the Cabinet, which has general oversight of the work of the Conference, and particularly has the responsibility of assigning the pastors to their respective charges.

We are proud that Trinity Church has always maintained a place of cooperation and leadership in the District and Conference.

These two "Official Boards" will roughly divide their responsibilities between business management and program implementation. Commissions become optional in each local Church.

“DON’T TAKE IT FOR GRANTED”

Tribune: “I bought this citizenship for a large sum.”
Paul: “But I was born a citizen.”

Acts 22:28

Several times recently I have heard or read the question, “What has happened to old fashioned patriotism?” Each time the question has set me to pondering, and to some answers.

But it isn’t just analysis or academic explanations we need just now. Dangers within and without call us to an awakened and concerned citizenship. This awakening and concern must express themselves in more active and responsible citizenship for a far larger number of our people. Our allegiance to country must be given a large place in our allegiance, second only to loyalty to Almighty God. Our own patriotism must be based on our own thought and action rather than on our response and reaction to certain groups and individuals who claim patriotism as their peculiar province and specialty.

This sermon will strongly emphasize the moral and religious elements in this needed renewal of authentic patriotism. I myself have just bought a flag which I plan to display at our parsonage on appropriate days to show forth not only my pondering, but my concern for our country’s welfare.

O God, whose bounty is exceeded only by thy mercy, look with favor upon our gathering at this time and hear our prayers of confession. We have received abundance from thy hand, but have not bowed before thee in humble gratitude. We have enjoyed a rich heritage, but have so often taken it for granted. We have claimed the benefits of Church and state, but have not always assumed our proper place. We have sinned against heaven and in thy sight, and beseech thee now for thy mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
