COMMUNION MEDITATION —

"A BEATITUDE WITH CONDITION"

"If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them."

— John 13-17.

We are all familiar with the Beatitudes of our Lord found in the Sermon on the Mount. From time to time in reading the Gospels we run into other "Blesseds" spoken by Jesus. With the help of a concordance, I have located eight of these, the number being arrived at after accounting for repetitions in the Synoptics. All of these will be used in the Table Dismissals in our Service of Holy Communion. One of them found at John 13:17, is used as text for our Communion Meditation.

Socrates was wrong! To know the right is not to do it. Between knowing and doing there is a vast no-man's land in which we lose our way and sometimes our very souls. Jesus was one "who went about doing good," and was always calling his followers to go beyond saying, "Lord, Lord," and really do the will of God.

It is so difficult to move from intention to action. And often a minimum of doing salves the conscience, immunizing us from further disturbing concern. Even at Communion we dare not forget the brother who has something against us.

RESPONSE TO QUESTION ON SOCIAL SUBJECTS

More than 200 persons checked "yes" and "no" on whether they would welcome sermons on three currently disturbing social claims, which have become doctrines in some quarters and near dogmas in others. The count at bulletin press time was 148 affirmative and 50 negative. Although the form was "ballot" style, and all were asked to "vote," the real intention was an "interest finder" and "interest provoker." These purposes were well served.

USEFUL COMMENTS

Many comments and suggestions, some quite helpful, came in. One of the best followed a "yes" choice: "... because I know your reaction to these things will be truly Christian." Several requested forum presentations and "talk-back" opportunities. These are certainly indicated.

FALL SERMON SERIES

So great is our interest, and so challenged is the Church in today's society, we must respond. A series of sermons on "The Church Challenged and Challenging" is announced for the fall months. These will be Biblical, doctrinal, evangelical, practical and understandable. Disturbing social questions will become a part of the "challenged" section of these sermons.

OUR RADIO SERVICES

Our Sunday broadcasts over Radio Station WTNT have a very large audience. The hearing range extends a radius of more than thirty miles. Tell your neighbors and friends about this ministry.

YOUTH UMYF

During August the youth are not meeting on Sunday evenings. This is giving our counselors time for vacations. Youth activities during the week will continue as scheduled.

MUSIC NOTE

Musicians please remember that even though the Youth Fellowship is not meeting during August the music still goes on for a while longer with Youth Chorus and Instrumental Ensemble.

WSCS LUNCHEON

The ladies of Trinity WSCS will sponsor a salad luncheon on Tuesday, August 5, at 12:00 noon. All the ladies of the church are invited to participate by bringing a salad. It will be held in the Fellowship Hall.

CHURCH SCHOOL YEAR IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Plans are underway for the beginning of a new Church School Year on September 7. Prior to that time boys and girls will be notified of new class and teacher assignments. Many people in our church are quietly giving of their time and talents in our teaching ministry. Many will want relief this year for their own personal renewal and others will be asked to serve in their places. Trinity members should consider prayerfully the stewardship of the use of their abilities and time when asked to participate in this important area of our church life.

"THE CHRISTIAN AND HIS WORLD"

"For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him." John 3:17.

The entire Bible is filled with the great idea that God is concerned for the world, by which is meant the earth and all its people. The New Testament is direct and specific about this. Even the Gospel of John, sometimes called the "spiritual gospel," carries an emphasis on this, as in our text.

So many people think that we are called to some kind of spiritualized isolationism, wherein we insulate ourselves from all earth's problems and hurts. Wholly contrary to the specific instructions of our Lord, some think they can do their worship in quiet peace without regard to our relationships with our fellow human beings.

This general way of thinking in Christian history has expressed itself in monasticism, apocalypticism and in a pietistic individualism. At various times each of these has flourished in the Church. To save ourselves from these tangential manifestations of our faith, we need only to look at the ministry and listen to the words of Jesus Christ. This sermon invites you thus to look and listen.

"A FAITH THAT RESTORES"

"The Lord is my shepherd; . . . he restoreth my soul."

— Psalm 23:1, 3.

The Twenty-Third Psalm is the "nightingale of the Psalms." It has in its verses a ministry of the ages to all people. We are told by its message that God is the Provider of food and drink, the Restorer of our souls.

What people need today, more than anything else, is a restoration of their faith. The psalmist speaks of it in terms of "soul," but this means "you"—your spirit, your mind, your body—your "life." And when he speaks of restoring your soul, he means re-establishing harmony within, of putting back a right relationship with God, of receiving new life.

The true source of help comes from these words: "The Lord is my shepherd; . . . he restoreth my soul." God is the answer, and what we need is more faith in Him. You would expect a minister to say that. But more and more professional people—doctors, scientists, lawyers, etc.—are saying the same thing.

An additional word must be said. We have been told by the psalmist to obtain the power of God; some have sought it and have failed. We are reminded of some directions we might take which may be of help: conviction; quietness of mind; and a prayer of affirmation. These will be considered in this sermon as possible ways to obtain this power.

May we all be blessed by the psalmist's secret of faith and practice it so that we may know its power!

Thou hast called to us in the need of our fellows, and we have passed unheeding on our way. In the pride of our hearts, and our unwillingness to repent, we have turned away from the cross of Christ, and have grieved thy Holy Spirit.

The Foreign Student Office and the International Club at FSU are searching for families willing to provide short-term hospitality for some 200 international students coming for the Fall Quarter 1969. Most of the students will arrive around September 10-14. The students would enjoy staying with American families for 3-7 days until the dormitories open on September 15. All students are able to speak English. Staying with families would give the students a pleasant start in Tallahassee and international flair would be added to the family life.

If you are able to offer hospitality for 3-7 days, please call the Foreign Student Office, Florida State University, 599-3092 or 599-3195.

"MARGINAL RELIGION"

"... this thing was not done in a corner" Acts 26:26

When Paul made his defense before Festus, the Roman, and Agrippa, the Jew, he attempted a skillful ad hominem argument to Agrippa concerning the basic events of beginning Christianity among the Jews. Surely King Agrippa knows these things; indeed they could hardly have escaped his notice, "for this thing was not done in a corner." How Agrippa would have preferred otherwise, and how pleased he would have been to have left the whole business of Christianity in a corner!

I am sure that Paul was not anticipating the skill of so many Christians in putting Christianity into a corner and keeping it there, but I am also sure that by a slight homiletical tour de force we may be allowed to apply his words and insight to our situation.

We are indeed quite good at this. Some of us even succeed in appearing pious in the very business of shunting Christianity off into some obscure and non-effective corner of life. Some of these corners? Space here forbids their listing. The sermon itself will do this. Don't stay home, come to Church and become involved. As our young people say, "Let's get with it." Meaning all of us.

MEMORIAL BOOK FOR SUNDAY

This Sunday the Memorial Book in the Church Narthex, which contains the Memorials and Gifts given to the glory of God and in honor and in memory of loved ones and friends is open to Two Church Pews, and a Church Pew.

WELCOME, NEW FAMILIES!

This is the time of year when many new families are moving to Tallahassee. Among these will be many Methodists. Some are already interested in Trinity. Others are "shopping" for a church. We extend to all of these a warm welcome, and a cordial invitation to make Trinity their church home.

CONGRATULATIONS TO COAST COMMITTEE

In the Summers of 1967 and 1968 our church sponsored Summer Sunday Morning Services at the Coast. This year an interdenominational committee has managed the services. Many property owners in the area have joined together to build a small "tabernacle" for services. Our congratulations to these people. A work well done.

HOUGLINS RETURNING

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Houglin will be returning soon from Lake Junaluska where they have spent the summer. This year they will reside at 1228 N. Duval in one of our Conference Homes. We look forward to their return and to his resumption of his useful work as Minister of Visitation.

MEMBERSHIP SUNDAY

To Methodists recently moved to Tallahassee we extend a warm welcome to our Services of Worship, to all the life and activities of our church, and to avail themselves of all pastoral services. Our next Membership Sunday is set for Sunday, September 21. Interested? Please let us know as soon as possible.

WEEKEND FOR SINGLES

"Who Will Answer?" is the theme for the August 30-September 1 weekend at Leesburg for single adults, 18-30 years of age. Our associate minister, Reverend Curry, will be teaching a course on "Loneliness: How to Cope With It." Please contact the office today if you are interested in attending with several who have already signed up.

LAYMEN NOTE!

Four weekend dates are offered for Methodist Men in Spiritual Life Retreats at Leesburg: October 3-5; October 10-12; October 17-19; and October 24-26. Applications and further information are available through the Church Office.

FIRST AND SECOND GRADE CHOIR

Our church choir program will begin rehearsals on September 7. The 1st and 2nd graders will attend the 11:00 A.M. Worship Service seated as a group in the front of the Sanctuary. They will leave as a group about half way through the service and have choir rehearsal during the remainder of the service. Delano Fenn and Mary Lee Staton will be directing this group, which is the Carol Choir.

THIRD, FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE CHOIR

The 3rd, 4th and 5th graders, the Wesleyan Singers, will have their first rehearsal on Tuesday, September 9, from 3:30 P.M. to 4:30 P.M. Anyone desiring further information please call Mrs. Walter James at the Church.

NOW IS THE TIME

The summer is vacation time; our people have been scattered; and our church program has been somewhat chaotic. Now is the time for us to come together, take our places, and get on with the Lord's work. The big word nowadays is involvement. It is a good word—if we really mean it!

"YOU'VE GOT TO GET IT INSIDE YOU"

"But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people." Jeremiah 31:34.

The response to the sermon of last Sunday was warm and extensive, quite surprising, even startling, to the preacher. This sequel continues the same theme, that of our inward realization and commitment in Christian faith. Space allows only the four-point outline of the sermon:

- I. When the Outside of Religion is on the Outside of You.
- II. When the Outside of Religion is on the Inside of You.
- III. When the Inside of Religion is on the Outside of You.
- IV. When the Inside of Religion is on the Inside of You.
