COMMUNION SUNDAY

And the voice that was softer than silence said,
"Lo it is I, be not afraid!
In many climes, without avail,
Thou hast spent thy life for the Holy Grail;
Behold, it is here. — this cup which thou
Didst fill at the streamlet for Me but now;
This crust is My body broken for thee,
This water His blood that died on the tree;
The Holy Supper is kept, indeed,
In whatso we share with another's need;
Not what we give, but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three,
Himself, his hungering neighbor, and Me."

"THE STRUGGLE TO BE A PERSON"

In the early days of American history the pioneer spirit was expressed in the saying that when you could see smoke from your neighbor's chimney it was time to move farther West. Those days placed a high value on individual initiative and private enterprise. In fact, everyone was pretty well responsible for himself.

Ours is a day of population explosion; a planned society with increasing state and federal control, and the growing power of corporations. The influence of the individual has diminished proportionately. The eroding value of individual worth has made its mark on our mood, and in large measure is responsible for the sense of futility and cynicism rampant today.

How this affects the individual and what one can do about it will be the theme of the message this Sunday morning.

Dear Lord, remember me!	For good remember me.

My pardon speak, new peace impart:	Then with the saints at thy right hand
In love remember me.	Good Lord, remember me. Amen.

"THE BIBLE IMAGE OF MAN"

"What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?" Psalm 8:4

If we take this text as a philosophical inquiry, we may miss its point, for it is really a poetic and religious expression of wonder. The answer is assumed in the question and the poet rejoices in its assurance.

Non-Biblical or secular images of man fluctuate widely from basest devaluation to extravagant exaltation. Doubtless the complexity and mixture that man is contributes to this fluctuation. It will be helpful as we seek to understand the Biblical image to take note of certain of these secular images.

The primary element of the Bible image of man is in his relationship to God. The Bible always sees man in this relationship. First of all he is seen as creature, God's workmanship. In this creaturehood lies much to yield self-understanding and religious feeling. As creature and subject, man is also sinner, meaning primarily that he seeks self-exaltation, extending this even to self-idolatry.

The second dimension of the Bible image of man is in his relationship to other men. This is basic and elemental, is recognized by the old story of Cain and Abel, and is in foremost consideration throughout the Bible.

We are sorry for the hardness of our hearts. We bemoan the dullness of our spirits. We are ashamed at the realization of the scantiness of our good works. ### "THE ROCK OF OUR SALVATION"

"Be Thou my strong habitation, whereupon I may continually resort; Thou hast given commandment to save me for Thou art my rock and my fortress." Psalm 71:3.

It is amazing to discover how frequently the word rock is used in the Old Testament as a figure or symbol for God. Indeed it is sometimes capitalized and used as a direct designation, or name, for the Divine being, as in "the Rock of our salvation." The Hebrews were adept at finding apt and vivid similitudes of Deity; this is one of the most interesting. To seek the thought and feeling behind the literary device should prove an interesting study.

The first clue is discovered in the parallelism of Hebrew poetry, in which pattern the same thought is expressed in consecutive but differing lines. In this pattern we frequently find the words habitation, refuge, and fortress used to repeat the meaning of rock. This helps us to understand that to the Hebrews, God was protective shelter from the world's dangers and threats.

The second clue follows easily and is essentially psychological. The need for shelter is elemental in human nature, and finds expression in many normal and abnormal ways. Hymns which express this essential element of religion include "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me."

A third and more general clue may be found in the topography of the Holy Land. A land of hills and valleys, of mountains and ravines, of caves and desert places, their very dwelling place colored the religious language, and even the theology and devotions, of the Hebrews.

YOUTH ON RETREAT

Most of our youth are attending a spiritual life retreat this weekend at the FSU Reservation. "God Speaks: Who Will Answer?" is the theme, with discussion, singing, and fellowship a part of the activities.

YOUTH CAMP

Cary Moon and Jim Love will be attending the Rising 10 and 11 Camp at Leesburg this week. David Chapman will be at the Leesburg Rustic Camp. Janet Connell has attended the Rising Seventh Rustic Camp this past week.

WELCOME TO NEW RESIDENTS AND VISITORS

The attendance registry each Sunday reveals that many new residents are Methodists. We welcome these and cordially invite them to become members of Trinity.

STAFF VACATIONS

Mrs. Harry Miley will be back on duty this week after her vacation. The Garcias are on a two-week vacation and will return to duty August 4th. Rev. Curry will be away the first two weeks in August. Mr. and Mrs. Walter James will also be on vacation the latter part of August. Dr. Foster will complete his vacation August 13-23.

YOUTH UMYF

No evening fellowship groups will meet this Sunday because of the retreat.

During August the youth will not meet on Sunday evenings. This will give our counselors time for vacations. Youth activities during the week will continue as scheduled.

TEXT OF ANTHEM: "And It Shall Come to Pass"

And it shall come to pass in the last days
that the mountain of the Lord's house
shall be established in the top of the mountains,
and shall be exalted above the hills;
and all nations shall flow into it.
And many people shall go and say,
Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain
of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths:

for out of Zion shall go forth the law,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
And he shall judge among the nations
and shall rebuke many people:
And it shall come to pass in the last days
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks:
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation
neither shall they learn war any more.
O house of Jacob, come let us walk in the light of the Lord.—Isaiah 2:2-5.

SERMONS ON NEW SOCIAL DOCTRINES

Three new social doctrines are getting attention across the Church, and are indeed being somewhat forced into the awareness of thoughtful Christians. One is the Doctrine of Reparations; second the Doctrine of Required Use of Church Funds for Moral Influence in the Market Place; third, the Christian Blessing of Violence in Certain Instances. Dr. Foster is preparing to preach on each of these Doctrines in the early fall, but hesitates to force such subjects on the congregation. Please help him decide what to do. Vote on ballot below, tear off and drop in collection plate or mail in.

SERMON CHOICE BALLOT

- ☐ Yes. I would like to hear Christian discussion on these new Doctrines.
☐ No. I don't believe we need this in the pulpit.
