"GREAT MOMENTS IN FREEDOM"

The Communion Meditation for our Morning Services is adapted from the sermon "Great Moments in Freedom" which will be heard over radio station WTNT at 9:00 A.M.

The development of civilization must be measured in terms of freedom for all people, the individual and the masses. We ordinarily think of this progress as gradual and rather imperceptible. But there are great moments, or episodes in history which are giant strides for mankind. Many of these are in Biblical history or in the story of the Christian Church.

1. Moses stands in the presence of Pharaoh and in the name of the Lord of all history demands, "Let my people go." The consequence was Exodus and the Promised Land.

2. Jesus is confronted by the Pharisees and accused of Sabbath breaking. His reply is one of history's greatest pronouncements of human freedom, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath."

3. Peter and other disciples stand before the Sanhedrin under severe judgment for civil disobedience. Peter states the principle for all godly men who disobey lesser sovereigns, when he says, "We must obey God rather than men."

4. Martin Luther stands accused of heresy before the Diet of Worms and faces the demand for recantation. His strong words, "My conscience is a captive of the word of God, and I cannot go against conscience. God help me. Here I stand." And this was a great moment in freedom.

"THE BORED CHRISTIANS"

"Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed."

Hebrews 12:12, 13.

"For you have not come to . . . darkness, and gloom, and a tempest . . . But you have come to the city of the living God . . . and to Jesus, the Mediator of a new covenant."

Hebrews 12:18, 22, 24.

The writer of Hebrews shares with his people a revelation of hope. His people were in despair. Their despair had turned into boredom. Their boredom resulted in a loss of faith in Christ. Many of us in the Church know the feeling. The message of hope is, therefore, for us too. We have a right at times to be tired, frustrated, and maybe even angry, but not to despair. We cannot afford to be bored with Jesus.

Our age is an age of birth pangs, of that there is no doubt. Our Church and our Nation face the birth of a new era. But, to be bored, to give up and to lose hope, it is not for the Christian. There is hope! There is hope in the integrity of God's Word! There is hope in the potential of God's Church! In spite of what some might say, it is not the Age of Aquarius, but the age of God's spirit. Today it is the Spirit of Faith and Hope!

"FORTIFICATIONS OF FAITH"

"Resist him, firm in your faith . . . the God of all grace . . . will himself restore, establish and strengthen you." I Peter 5:9, 10.

The drop-out rate from Christian commitment and church membership is very great. The problem is complicated by the fact that the rate on the former is greater than on the latter. This rate difference results in the formal retention of membership statistics far above earnest Christian life. Herein lies the weakness of the Church, the despair of pastors, and the frustration.

I am sure our drop-outs don't intend these developments. Most all original Christian commitment is clear and sincere. But life forces of all sorts which come into play in our lives counter the force of Christian faith and frustrate our best intentions. Some of these life forces are simply in the category of temptation and sin. Often the breaking up of the environment of religion brings a tragic lessening of fidelity. Tragedies and disappointments often embitter persons, causing them to cry out against life, against God, and against pastors and others who, in their view, are representatives of God.

The Church and its ministry has a great task here. It seems difficult to recognize and acknowledge this, but once we do our first realization will be doubtless that we have offered a bargain basement kind of religion, with a diluted theology, and a sort of half-heartedness all around. In early days of Methodism someone described our way of life as "Christianity in earnest." May God give this back to us!

Sermon Preview

"YOUR HEAVEN . . . SO FAR AWAY!"

"That in the dispensation of the fulness of time he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him."

Ephesians 1:10

Some there are who don't seem to have anything left of heaven in their religious thinking. In losing the old cosmological housing — the three layer cosmos — of their faith, they have just about abandoned the concept of the ultimate, or else have such a nebulous image that it doesn't matter. Such persons, if they are inclined even to keep their faith, increasingly say, "Earth is enough."

Still among us are the opposite sort whose faith is essentially other-world centered. As one such said of himself, "My one life purpose as a Christian is to shun hell and gain heaven." For these, to be saved is to "go to heaven" when one dies.

Logically there seems to be the fallacy of the false alternative in the holding of either of these extreme points of view. Neither represents Biblical realism, wherein there is a Jacob's Ladder and a Lord's Prayer, and wherein walking with God on earth is a prime way of conceptualizing spiritual reality.
