COMMUNION MEDITATION

"LABORERS FOR HIS HARVEST"

"Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Luke 10:2.

Scripture Lesson — Luke 10:1-2.

This admonition of our Lord is directed to the seventy who are sent out two by two "into every town and place where he himself was about to come." He observes that "the harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few."

The awakening of our Christian lay people to their true place in the Church and Kingdom is surely one of the more promising avenues of Church renewal. Even in Protestantism, which professes the priesthood of all believers, we have developed a degree of clericalism which greatly contributes to our failure in vitality, witness and effectiveness.

On this day when we turn from the easier weeks of the summer to the demands of the fall and winter season, it seems appropriate that we worship together in terms of our responsibilities for Church and Kingdom. Coming to Communion becomes for each one a renewal of Commitment to Christ and his Church.

ELECTION OF CHURCH LEADERSHIP

Our Charge Conference will meet on Tuesday, November 10. This conference will elect members of our Council on Ministries, Administrative Board, Commissions, Committees and others for 1971. The Committee on Nominations will be meeting soon. Please let us have your suggestions for various offices, especially for members at large of the Administrative Board.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES AND ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Milk have gone off the active list with our Board of Missions as of September 1. We are offered a choice of three new missionaries to support as Advance Specials: the replacement of Dr. Milk in Mexico, a couple in Pakistan, and a couple in the Congo. Currently we are contributing $6,000.00 annually to this missionary support. Shall we continue this giving? Our Council on Ministries and our Administrative Board must decide. What our membership thinks counts most. Please think about this.

YOUTH COUNCIL MEETING

Our September Youth Council dinner-meeting will be on Tuesday, the 15th, 6:30 P.M., at Rev. and Mrs. John Green's home, 1812 Medart Drive. All youth officers, representatives, and adults should attend.

"RETURN TO YOUR OWN HOUSE!"

"Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." Luke 8:39.

The New Testament setting for this Sunday's sermon is the story of the healing of the Gerasene demoniac, who named himself "Legion," to show how "many demons had entered him." This is one of the more interesting and dramatic of the healing episodes in the ministry of Jesus.

It would be an interesting experience, at least for the preacher, to give an exposition of this entire narrative. For our present purpose, however, we choose a particular offer and response of the whole encounter.

The healing completed, now "clothed and in his right mind," with great new vistas before him, the man comes to Jesus and requests that he might leave his home village and go away with Jesus. The reply of Jesus is simply, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." This reply provides the theme of the message.

The place of witness is everywhere. Every human situation may become a microcosm of the kingdom. Every human relationship provides opportunities for redemptive living. Christ indeed calls and sends every believer, and sometimes to great roles on small stages.

"MY BODY — NOBODY'S BUSINESS!"

"Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body."

I Corinthians 6:19-20.

Many strange new doctrines are being set forth and spread among us in these days, especially in the area of personal ethics. Quite the most startling, threatening, and fallacious of these is that enunciated in the declaration, "My body belongs to me, and it is nobody's business what I do with it." Apparently this doctrine is one of the strange excesses of the "rights" movements now rife among us. It is sometimes promoted by self-styled super sophisticates as an evidence of their emancipation. Unfortunately it has seeped down to teen-agers, and is sometimes shouted in defiance to parents.

This doctrine, with its sanction of supposed sophistication, is put to the practical uses of justifying sexual indulgence, drug and alcohol use, suicide and a general life style.

This dangerous doctrine is easily countered at the levels of common sense, of psychology, and of a reasonable ethics. While these levels will be mentioned in the sermon, the basic approach will proceed from a distinctive Christian point of view, and particularly from the text from St. Paul.

CAMPUS TO CHURCH BUS

Beginning on Sunday, October 4, our Youth Bus will run from the F.S.U. Campus to the Church in time for the Eleven O'Clock Service, returning over the same route following the Service. This year we hope to develop a definite list of regular student worshippers.

PARISH PARTICIPATION

Shall We Continue Supporting a World (Foreign) Missionary?

For many years we have supported Dr. and Mrs. Richard Milk, first in Cuba and then in Mexico, as an Advance Special, over and above World Service. Dr. Milk has been forced for health reasons to give up his work in Mexico. Our Board of Missions now requests us to support another missionary couple in a foreign field. The cost is $6,000.00 annually. Indicate your choice below:

- ☐ I favor continuing our Advance Special Support of a World (Foreign) Missionary.
 - ☐ I favor changing our support to a National mission project, such as Appalachia, Inner City, work with Cubans in Florida, migrants, etc.
 - ☐ I favor using this money for local missions, such as child care centers, helping rural churches, expanded relief, scholarships.
 - ☐ I favor using this money in our own Trinity Church, to expand program, increase staff, pay off debts, etc.

GUEST SPEAKERS

The Methodist Church has been in the work of higher education almost from its beginning. The Wesley brothers were Oxford scholars, and one of the roots of Methodism is in the Holy Club of their student days at Oxford. Today we own and operate colleges and universities throughout the country, as well as missionary educational institutions in many areas of the earth. Although high costs of institutional maintenance and operation threaten many of our colleges, there seems to be firm agreement among our leaders that we will stay in this field. Greater endowments and increased church support are among the answers to our problems.

We are fortunate in our two Church-related colleges in Florida, Bethune-Cookman at Daytona Beach and Florida Southern at Lakeland. Each has its distinctive characteristics and makes its contributions to church, state and nation. As a part of our program to extend the acquaintance of our people with our institutions, we present Dr. Charles T. Thrift and Dr. Richard Pearce, President and Vice-President of Florida Southern College, to our people this Sunday at our Morning Services. We solicit for them a generous hearing.

Eternal God, Sovereign of all creation and Lord of all history, condescend to us now, we humbly pray, and hear our prayers of confession. Thou art so great and we are so small, yet we claim thy mercy. Thou art holy and glorious and we are impure and selfish, yet we beseech thee to love and forgive us. Thou art Ruler of all thou hast created and we hardly rule our own lives, yet we pray that thou wilt order our lives and give us inward discipline. When we forget thee, do not thou forget us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. They that seek the Lord: shall not want any good thing. Alleluia, Alleluia. Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest. These are they which came out of great tribulation: and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God: and serve him day and night in his temple. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.
