RENOWNED ITALIAN ORGANIST TO PLAY AT TRINITY

GIUSEPPE ZANABONI, director of the Music Conservatory in Piacenza, Italy, will play an organ recital on Trinity's sanctuary organ on TUESDAY, APRIL 10, at 8:15 P.M. The program will consist entirely of organ music by Italian composers from the 17th to the 20th centuries. All members of Trinity are urged to attend this FREE concert and to bring your friends and neighbors.

Mr. William MacGowan, who played The Dedication Concert for our organ, and who is now Organist-Choirmaster at the Church-of-Bethesda-by-the-Sea in Palm Beach, writes of Mr. Zanaboni: "He was my host in Piacenza two years ago—is a fabulous organist, and plays the Italian literature . . . with such sparkle and zest. I was amazed at what a large body of music they have for the organ."

This concert is Trinity's Springtime gift to the whole community. It is made possible through the GENEROSITY OF TRINITY MEMBERS WHO HAVE MADE SPECIAL DONATIONS. Your continued financial support of this project is urged. Checks should be made out to Trinity United Methodist Church and should be marked Organ Recital Fund.

This will be the fourth of a series of special organ concerts which have been presented in our sanctuary and which have been played on the $65,000, forty rank instrument with its 2,674 pipes, built by Austin Organs in 1964. It is only in such a concert that the full capabilities of this outstanding instrument can be displayed.

PLACE THIS CONCERT ON YOUR "MUST ATTEND" LIST OF COMING EVENTS.

JOAN HEGGEN WILL SPEAK TO UMW

On Tuesday, April 3, the United Methodist Women will have a luncheon meeting in Fellowship Hall from 12:00-1:00. The speaker will be Mayor Joan Heggen. There will be a board meeting at 10:00 prior to the general meeting.

MATURE YEARS CONFERENCE

Open to those who are retired or of retirement age and who wish to seek fellowship with others, this conference will be held at Leesburg, April 23-26, at the United Methodist Camp there. Registration is limited to 150, so early registration is advised. Obtain blanks from Rev. Harold Brown.

NEEDED: TRANSPORTATION

If you could help a blind woman (maybe one day a week, or less) with transportation to and from her job for a short period of time, please contact the church office (222-1120) or Sue Schroeder (576-1347). Her work hours are 8:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.

CONTROVERSY AND CONFLICT

Mr. Sam Rogers is discussion leader for the Bob Story Class on Sunday mornings at 9:45 A.M. in the Conference Room (212, next to the parlor), considering the book by K. H. Koestline, journalism professor and author. Subject? Constructive Christian alternatives to controversy and conflict. Interested adults are cordially invited to share in these sessions.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Members of the Confirmation class will be going to the Jewish synagogue on Friday evening, April 13, leaving the church parking lot at 7:30 promptly. The service of worship is 8-9 P.M., and we are invited to stay for refreshments following with a tour, returning to the church around 9:30 P.M.

GLEANERS-KOINONIA CLASS

John Green will lead the Gleaners-Koinonia Class in a study of the Life and Teachings of Jeremiah during April and May.

ADVANCED STUDIES' CLASS SQUARE DANCE

By popular demand, the Advanced Studies (Betty Phifer's) Class is having a square dance and covered dish dinner on Friday, April 13, at 6:30, in Fellowship Hall. The MYF is especially invited to be our guests at dinner and for dancing as long as they can stay. Please call Miriam Peirce, 385-7330, with the number in your family attending.

F C I INVITATION

The entire cast of the folk-cantata "Living in the Spirit" have been invited to perform at the Federal Correctional Institution Friday evening, April 6, at 7:30 P.M. Meet at the church parking lot at 6:45 if you are participating.

INTERESTED IN YOUNG CHILDREN?

If you want to have a part in deciding what the state's services to young children should be, join with others in Leon and surrounding counties to hear Dr. Milton Akers, Director of Florida's Office of Early Childhood Development. He will discuss the plan he is developing to meet the needs of all Florida's young children, and he wants your reactions and suggestions. It will be on Saturday, March 31, from 9:00 to 12:00 noon at the Leon County Agricultural Center, 615 Paul Russell Road.

WHY WERE THE SAINTS, SAINTS?

Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful;

Patient, when it was difficult to be patient;
And because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still,

And kept patient when they wanted to talk,
And were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. . . .

That's it! It's quite simple, and always will be.—Copied.

HOLY WEEK BREAKFASTS

Plan now to be present for each of the 1973 Holy Week Breakfasts at the church in the fellowship hall Monday, April 16—Thursday, April 19. Serving begins at 7:00 A.M. each morning and the program concludes by 8:00 A.M. with a musical selection and inspirational lay speaker. An annual affair to center upon the essence of the Christian meaning of the last week of the Lord's life, members and friends of Trinity Church are welcomed by the sponsor, the Commission on Education, Ken Howell, Chairman.

OCCASIONALLY I HAVE SHARED WITH YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO RESPOND TO A SPECIAL NEED. Here's one that was presented to me this week by the Chairman of our Commission on Missions, Don Creedman.

WE HAVE A NEED FOR GIFTS TOTALLING $350.00 to make it possible for a young man from NIGERIA to finish his junior year at FAMU. He is working towards a degree in animal science.

He was being sponsored in college by an uncle. But last September the uncle was killed in an automobile accident in Nigeria. With help which FAMU officials were able to obtain for him, he has been able to make it to this present quarter. He is working part time for $60 per month but needs the additional money to pay his tuition.

You can make checks payable to Trinity. If more than $350 is received, the extra money will be placed in a fund to meet similar emergency needs.

Ed Norman

FLOWERS FOR EASTER

Persons interested in remembering and honoring loved ones with flowers in the sanctuary on Easter Sunday are requested to call the Church Office (222-1120) for further information.

USE THE CHURCH LIBRARY!

Trinity Church is fortunate to have a fine church library. From time to time many teachers are there utilizing its good reference collection. There are books for pre-schoolers right through adult interests, so why not drop by any day, Monday through Friday, 9 to 5, or Sundays during services, and check out a book. Miss Josephine Ezell is our church librarian.

SUMMER CAMP APPLICATIONS

Dates for summer camping for all ages at Leesburg, Brandon, Centenary Camp in Quincy, and other sites sponsored by the Florida Conference are available upon request through Rev. Harold Brown. Please do not delay if interested.

PRAYER

O God, who through the resurrection of Jesus Christ hast freed us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of thy love: Grant, we beseech thee that, as by his death he has recalled us into life, so by his abiding presence he may bring us to the joys eternal; through him who for our sakes died and rose again, and is ever with us in power, the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY (NO. 809) AND PRAYER OF DEDICATION

THE MAASTRICHT EASTER PLAY — Edited by W. W. Hollman

Explanation: the Easter message, as found in the first verses of Mark 16, is dramatized in this 12th century musical drama which was performed regularly in Maastricht, Holland, from 1200 to 1500. Following over 400 years of neglect, the play was rediscovered in 1947, and had its first American production at Cedar Crest College in 1960. The music is that which was familiar to church congregations of the 13th century, plain-song, such as that found in Hymn No. 467 of The Methodist Hymnal. In addition to the story as found in Mark, three early hymns are sung: Alle, psallite cum luya, Alleluya; Victimae Paschali; laudi; and Te Deum. The original text was in Latin, but will be sung in English translation in this performance.

Processional

- Scene I: Mary Magdalene, Mary Jacobi, and Mary Salome come to the tomb to anoint the body of their Lord.
- Scene II: The three Marys lament the death of their Saviour, but in coming to the tomb, find the stone has been rolled away.
- Scene III: Angels at the head and foot of the Sepulchre tell the Marys that Jesus of Nazareth is not in the tomb, but has risen. They are urged to return to Galilee, if they wish to see Him.
- Scene IV: Jesus makes himself known to Mary Magdalene, who has remained at the tomb.
- Scene V: Two disciples come to the place of the tomb, but are told by Mary Magdalene that Christ has arisen and gone to Galilee.
- Scene VI: After two Pilgrims have met a stranger on the road, their hearts are made to burn within them.
- Scene VII: All are advised by the Angels to report the wonder which they have seen and experienced.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women will have a joint meeting with the Trinity United Methodist Men's Club in May. This will take the place of our regular general meeting and will be Tuesday, May 1, at 6:30 P.M., in the Fellowship Hall. The program is entitled "The Stewardship of our Environment," and ladies may bring their husbands even if they are not members of the Men's Club. Dinner will be $1.25 per person. The U.M.W. board will meet Tuesday, May 1, at 10:30 A.M.

NOTICE TO ALL UMW BOARD MEMBERS

On Tuesday, May 1, there will be a Board Meeting for the United Methodist Women Board Members at the home of Mrs. Louis (Ruth) Zanelli, 921 Maplewood Avenue (Town 'N Country). From 10:00 until 10:30 there will be a coffee with the business meeting beginning at 10:30.

YOUTH WORKERS AVAILABLE

The youth are making money for their summer trip and are still accepting jobs like mowing and cleaning and raking, etc. Contact Billy James (385-3098) or the church office (222-1120) to make arrangements.

WANTED: TEACHERS

Would you like to relieve some of our faithful church school teachers for their summer vacations or for the entire summer quarter (children, youth, and adults)? See Rev. Brown for possibilities.

FAMILY ENRICHMENT WEEK

Families interested in spending a week in the French Lick, Indiana Sheraton Hotel, July 8-13 with Christian leadership and recreation planned including these resource persons: Dr. R. Lofton Hudson, director, Midwest Counseling Center, Kansas City; Dr. Cecil G. Osborne, director of Yokefellow; Dr. Wayne Oates, outstanding Christian author and counsellor; and Grady Nutt, author of You Bug Me, call Rev. Brown (222-1120). American plan rates from $28 per day per person.

BOYS 12-18

Florida Southern College, our United Methodist College in Lakeland, Florida, offers the Jim Jarrett Basketball School July 29-August 3 in the George Jenkins Field House at the College. Arrive Sunday 4:00 P.M. and leave Friday noon. Cost $85 for room, meals, insurance and fees. Head Coach Jarrett will be assisted by Bobby Paschal. All phases of basketball fundamentals will be covered. See Rev. Brown for applications.

WELLBORN TO SPEAK

Dr. Charles Wellborn of the Department of Religion, Florida State University, will lead a three session series on Sunday evenings having to do with Christian ethics, beginning next Sunday evening with a covered dish supper in the fellowship hall at 6:15 P.M. The series will conclude with two 7:45 P.M. sessions in the chapel at the regular evening worship hour. Plan to be a part of these three opportunities.
