Historical Facts About
Trinity United Methodist Church

- 1824 Trinity Church was founded as the first organized congregation in Tallahassee, Florida. It was either John Slade or John Triggs who helped to organize the church. They were both Methodist missionaries or "Circuit Riders," and they both preached in the newly established Florida capital city.
- 1825 Josiah Evans appointed Presiding Elder of the Tallahassee District and pastor of the Tallahassee Mission, by the South Carolina Conference. The first church was erected on a lot at the southwest corner of what is now known as Park Avenue and Bronough Street. Collin Woodberry was the builder. This was a small wooden building, not ceiled or plastered and with no glass in the windows, which were closed by wooden shutters. The building had a gallery for the Negroes.
- 1828 Tallahassee made a station charge, with Josiah Freeman, pastor.
- 1829 First parsonage was erected on South Bronough Street. John D. Bowen was pastor.
- 1831 First attempt was made at starting a Sunday School under John W. Talley, pastor.
- 1837 Three lots were purchased at the corner of Park and Duval.
- 1840 Contract was let for the erection of the second church building, the first church built on the present site. This was located on the lots purchased in 1837. It was a brick building 40 X 60 feet with a basement and a gallery. Richard A. Shine was the builder. This building was occupied in 1841. James A. McArver was the pastor in 1840 and Wesley Adams in 1841.
- 1842 After a revival, extending over several months, the pastor, William Choice, reported that 131 whites and 168 Negroes united with the church.
- 1845 The Florida Annual Conference was organized in this church, pursuant to a resolution that had been adopted by the General Conference of 1844. The Florida churches had previously been members, first of the South Carolina Conference and later the Georgia Conference when it was organized. Gideon A. Mallette was the pastor.
- 1851 Simon Peter Richardson was the pastor. In his autobiography, published in 1901, he writes, "I was stationed at Tallahassee, the capital of the state, which had a wide reputation for many bloody feuds by the Reeds, Alstons, and others, but those days, with their scenes of horror, had passed away, and peace and prosperity, religion and morality, had taken their place. The Methodist church of the town."
- 1853 Property was purchased at the northwest corner of Park Avenue and Bronough Street. In 1868 the church deeded this property to the Board of Trustees for the "Colored Methodist Episcopal Church" and the deed states that it had been purchased for the use of the Negroes. Josephus Anderson was the pastor.

1840 CHURCH

- 1859 Second parsonage was erected. It faced Park Avenue and was located between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. It was later remodeled and served as the parsonage until 1936. Franklin A. Branch was the pastor.
- 1866 The pastor, J. O. Branch, reports financial prosperity, but spiritual depression of the church.
- 1867 While the church building was being repaired, services were held in the Capitol. James O. Branch was the pastor.
- 1870 The pastor, L. W. Moore, reports a rising spiritual tide.
- 1892 A decision was made to rebuild the church. The old building was torn down and the third church building was occupied in 1893. W. M. Poage was the pastor, the membership was 307, the pastor's salary $1,200, and the total amount raised in 1893 from all sources was $5173. The cost of the building was about $12,000.
- 1896 The Epworth League was organized with 53 members. John B. Ley was the pastor.
- 1899 W. N. Sheats, the "Sunday School" Superintendent, reported that three Chinese were in a class and also that a special class had been organized for some children who could not read. W. J. Carpenter was the pastor.
- 1900 In the early 1900's some of the Methodist Episcopal Church's leading revival ministers held meetings in Tallahassee under Trinity's sponsorship. To name a few: John Culpepper and his son Burke, Miss Emma Tucker, and two meetings held here by Arthur Moore (in the teens) before he was elected a Bishop.
- 1910 The north addition to the church was completed. F. C. Gilmore was the builder and it cost $12,000. Ira S. Patterson was the pastor and the membership that year was 508, the pastor's salary $2,400, and $10,125 was raised from all sources.
- 1927 Raised funds and helped to build the first Wesley Foundation building adjoining the University campus, then Florida State College for women. Elsie Ellen Moore was the first director of the Foundation. The church membership passed 1,000. E. Watt Smith was the pastor.
- 1936 The parsonage at 610 North Adams Street was built at a cost of $9,000. The price paid for the land was $1,600. J. H. Daniel was the pastor and Child Brothers were the builders.
- 1939 Sponsored the "Southside Methodist Church." It is now "The Rock United Methodist Church." Dr. Jack E. Anderson was the pastor from 1939 - 1944.
- 1940 Began broadcasting the morning services.
- 1943 Membership passed 2,000.

GLENN JAMES MEMORIAL CHAPEL

receiving the Ten Commandments; the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea; the restoration of the Jews to the Holy Land after their captivity in Babylon. This event is portrayed by Nehemiah rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, Ezra, preparing to teach the Law, and King Cyrus restoring the sacred vessels to the priests of the Temple.

The four corners of the first lancet contain the symbols of prophecies. Amos is shown as a shepherd. Tongs holding a flaming coal from the altar show the seraphim's sealing of Isaiah's lips. The martyrdom of Jeremiah is symbolized by a stone and a rod, and a winepress containing a chi rho, the first two letters of Christ's name, refers to a prophecy made by Isaiah.

The center lancet begins at the bottom with the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and the traditional animals. The star shines as always over the beloved figures. The low position of the manger scene suggests the humble birth of Our Lord.

Above and to the left is Jesus being baptized by John the Baptizer in the River Jordan and the descent of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove. To the right is a representation of Jesus healing a blind man, showing forth the healing ministry of our Lord.

In the center is the figure of Christ coming forth from the tomb and conveying the Christian hope of resurrection from the dead.

Next above, Jesus is seen teaching in the synagogue and from a boat at the shore of a lake.

In the uppermost position and dominating the entire window is the magnificent figure of Christus Rex, exalted. This figure of the triumphant Christ is seated upon a rainbow, symbol of celestial enthronement. He holds an orb, representing the world, with a cross upon it to signify the hope that one day the whole earth will become the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The four winged creatures in the small squares at the corners of the panel are symbols of the Four Evangelists. The book held by each winged creature is a gospel. At the lower left, the man with wings is Matthew. At the lower right, the winged lion is Mark. The winged ox represents Luke and winged eagle is John.

The last lancet is intended to show the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church from Pentecost to the present day. Beginning at the top with the dove descending upon the disciples, the Holy Spirit is represented empowering them to go forth and teach the Gospel.

Below this in two half circles St. Paul is baptizing converts and Bishop Ambrose is baptizing Augustine.

The central figure is of Martin Luther committing the act which started the Protestant Reformation by nailing his Ninety-five Theses to the church door in Wittenberg in 1517.

Next is Charles Wesley writing hymns which have been sung in almost every Protestant church. At the right Francis Asbury, the first circuit rider, represents the manner in which Methodism was spread in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

In the lower center is the figure of John Wesley, looming large to signify the position he holds in the history of Methodism. He is here testifying to his strangely warmed heart and with the symbol of the Holy Spirit directing rays toward the heart of this man at Aldersgate.

In the quarter-circles are seen symbols again: wallet, staff, and scallop representing the sending out of the twelve, the Seventy, and all Christians into the world. Opposite is the helping hand of the Christian reaching down under the Chi Rho toward the upstretched hands of the needy. The ship with the Cross upon its sail is the modern Church in the storm-tossed world. In the lower right the space ship amidst the planets represents the space age into which we have already entered.
