Dear Trinity Family,

We hope that this new Trinity Family Album will be a joy to you. We have chosen the quadrennial theme of the United Methodist Church, "Celebrating God's Grace - Witnessing for Jesus Christ," to be the theme of this directory.

In seeing photographs of the fine facilities, we are not only reminded of how blessed we are but, also, of the great heritage we have from the saints who have gone before us and prepared the way for a glorious present.

Then, as we look at the pictures of the people we know and love, we feel keenly the enriching fellowship of which we are a part here at Trinity Church. Our fellowship is additionally enhanced when we see the pictures of some folks we see often but whose names we have not known. Now, we can call these familiar people by name. We "celebrate God's grace" as we find that grace renewing and strengthening us through the life and fellowship of the church.

In the various activity pages, we happily note programs in which we are involved, and we are made more aware of programs for others which we are glad our church sponsors. We see Trinity ministering in varied ways within our congregation, our community, and our world.

We are reminded of our "witnessing for Jesus Christ" through the life of Trinity Church and its people. We see that this great host of capable people can be a force for good in Tallahassee, the beautiful capital of the wonderful state of Florida. Because of our commitment to Christ, we seek to extend our witness from Trinity Church to the ends of the earth.

Let us celebrate and witness!

David G. Hortin
Senior Pastor

Our Staff

Grateful for those who have gone before us, Trinity members proudly acknowledge our 166 year history as the first organized congregation in the capital city of Florida.

Today, Trinity United Methodist Church continues its commitment to the Christian education of all. Our industrious Education Work Area oversees a diverse program for many age groups, from infants to octogenarians.

In the lisp of a two-year-old and the squeal of a first grader, the joyful sounds of Trinity's youngest are heard. From the cheerful crib room to the second floor's animated elementary school classes, a dedicated Sunday School faculty teaches the lessons of Jesus. "Trinity Troopers," offered mid-week to K-5th graders, provides spiritual growth built around Bible study, recreation, music and a fellowship meal.

The weekday preschool serves as an effective community outreach; many of the children's parents become members of Trinity. Summer brings "Tunes and Tales," a delightful combination vacation Bible school and music camp.

Worship enrichment is provided weekly during the 11:00 a.m. Sunday service; little ones from 3-5 learn to praise God through music and singing while K-2nd graders are provided a worship/learning experience of their very own.

Scouting is supported by Trinity as part of its overall educational program. Cub-Scout Pack #107 provides positive growth opportunities for our own boys and others in the community.

Pre-teens are invited to attend a Confirmation Class during Lent prior to joining the church on Palm Sunday. At Trinity, youth have a special place, not only in the Gregory Room, their own recreation/education space, but in the hearts of the congregation. Led by dedicated staff and enthusiastic volunteers, Trinity's young people carry out significant outreach goals while learning and growing in their Christian faith.

The United Methodist Youth Fellowship Sunday evening program complements Sunday School by offering inspirational lessons, recreational opportunities and fellowship. Summer's freer schedule permits a Youth Emphasis Week and an intensive outreach work program, the Appalachian Service Project. The youth raise funds for these events by providing services to the larger church family throughout the year.

Following high school graduation, Trinity's young adults are nurtured by our Higher Education and Campus Ministry Committee, who keeps in touch with college students and those pursuing military or career paths.

The individual and collective study of God's word is a privilege practiced with enthusiasm in Trinity's adult education program.

Caring for “the least of these” is a responsibility Trinity Church tries to shoulder faithfully as it reaches beyond the corner of its physical presence at Park Avenue and Duval Street.

On the local level, the Church and Society and Missions Work Areas oversee Trinity’s participation in such programs as ECHO, Habitat for Humanity, Tallahassee Housing Foundation’s Octoberfest work day, Tallahassee’s Cold Night Shelter and other programs to feed the hungry. Adult mission teams have provided assistance to our missionary, Gordon Greathouse, in Brazil and served with the Tallahassee District Volunteers in Missions to build a Methodist church in a poor Mexican community.

Both nimble and aged hands create clever crafts for the church’s annual bazaar to benefit mission projects. Through our conference apportionments we participate in a global ministry greater than our own resources.

Whether we repair the doorstep of a local, elderly friend or provide a day's bread to the malnourished of a Third World disaster area, it is the hand of Christ we extend, the mercy of God we reflect, for in the words of Christ, "even the Son of God came not to be ministered unto but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

Regardless of age, race, gender or social circumstance, all are welcome at Trinity UMC. We gather for worship in a graceful sanctuary built in 1964, the third Trinity structure erected within a two block area in Tallahassee. As the majestic organ announces Sunday morning worship, and the choir lifts its voices heavenward, we humbly bow our heads and thank God for life's goodness and our Father's tender mercy. We are but one congregation, learning, working, praising, sharing, becoming together the family of God. We are Trinity, a "downtown church" in a growing city, full of God's promise, blessed by His love.
