TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Tallahassee, Florida

Volume 33, Number 4, April, 2006

Trinity's Mission: We are a community of Christian disciples building pathways through which God's love is realized.

Ringling in Trinity's new addition just in time for Easter services

Carillon newest purchase

As Reverend Willis pressed the button, the sanctuary was filled with, silence. What was supposed to happen was...Reverend Willis would push down on the remote control play button and Amazing Grace would play through the new carillons. After a couple of moments, the music of the bells came through loud and clear.

Not only do the brand new carillons play outside and/or inside the church, but they can also be played from the organ keyboard. So, effectively, Trinity has gained a new musical instrument as well as gaining a carillon.

The Board of Trustees was responsible for both the purchase and installation of the carillon. The bells will ring at noon, 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. each day except Sunday. On Sundays, Reverend Willis will control the ringing of the noon bells so they don't start ringing during the church service.

Palm Sunday April 9

The three services at 8:30, 9:45, and 11 a.m. will be held at the regular times.

Elementary school-age children will join in the procession carrying palms at the 11 a.m. service. Don't miss this special service.

Maudy Thursday April 13

This traditional service of communion will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. This is a traditional observance of the Last Supper of Christ.

The service will be preceded by a dinner in Moor Hall that will begin at 6:30 p.m. Please call the church office at 222-1120 to make your reservation.

Good Friday April 14

Trinity will again have a worship service observing the crucifixion of Christ at 12 noon. This is a city-wide United Methodist service that is traditionally hosted by Trinity.

Invite other United Methodists to come to church with you and then stay for a delicious lunch after the service. A $5 donation is suggested, and reservations should be made through the church office at 222-1120.

Easter Sunday April 16

Easter services begin at 7 a.m. with the traditional Sunrise Service. This service for early risers is held in E. Peck Greene Park, which is located across the street and East of Trinity. Reverend Wayne P. Cook will lead this service that will see the Easter sunrise.

A delicious hot breakfast will served after the service in Moor Hall. Reservations should be made through the church office by calling 222-1120.

All three regular services will be held at 8:30, 9:45, and 11 a.m. The services will feature special music and the theme for Reverend Willis' sermon will be "Be Thou My Vision." Don't miss this special Easter.

The Crazy Tree Hugger

By John G. Willis, Jr.
Senior Pastor

Now that we have our own house, for the first time in my life I am experiencing all the joys of yard work! Actually, I kind of like it. (I made sure we got a small yard).

Where our backyard ends, the woods begin. A ways back in the woods, I noticed a red maple tree. I thought you had to go to Vermont to see these, so I was thrilled to see one here. I liked it so much I decided that I might buy a couple of those to put at the edge of the back yard. However, last fall, while working in the yard, I noticed a red maple right at the very edge of the woods, almost in the yard. However, the tree had been pushed over to where it was at a 45° angle, almost parallel to the ground. Hot dog! I got my tree for free. It wasn't very big, only about 2" in diameter and about 15' tall. So, I figured I could gently pull it to where it would be standing upright. I grabbed it and carefully started to pull, when suddenly I heard an awful cracking noise. Oh no! I had killed my tree! I was heartbroken. I rushed in to the house searching for tape. Masking tape was all I could find. Very carefully, I wrapped the tape around the break.

All winter long I would water it and check my tree. Then last week, I went out and — wonder of wonders — there was new growth above the break! To put it mildly, I was overjoyed!

It made me wonder, if a little TLC can heal a broken tree, what can it do for a human being? If I get excited over a tree that I thought was dead, but now is alive, how much more excited should/will I get over Easter? Spring has got to be God's way of showing us that after a bleak, drab, dreary, depressing winter in our lives comes new life. Nowhere is that more evident than in Tallahassee.

The Pilgrimage goes on,

John

April's "Change" goes to Refuge House

Ron Hock
Church and Society Ministry Co-Chair

Your Church and Society Ministry Team has selected the Refuge House as the recipient of the April "change." Refuge House, serving eight counties surrounding Leon County, provides direct services to battered women, their children, and assault survivors. Through outreach and educational programs, this organization works to eliminate the conditions in society that allow such violence to continue.

Refuge House is just one of the number of most worthwhile organizations that Trinity's congregation has contributed their "pocket

"change" to on Sunday mornings these many months. It is wonderful how your "small change" adds up to hundreds of dollars and the good feeling you receive far outweighs the "change" you will hardly miss.

Lots of Music-Making at Trinity in April!

Mark Repasky
Director of Music

April 2

The 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. services will include a special presentation by our Trinity Ringers. Several times during the service, the ringers will present sections from "Five Inscriptions" by Cathy Moglebust. Short Latin verses were often inscribed on church bells of Western Europe during the period from the 13th-16th centuries. They provide a glimpse into the important role church bells played within their surrounding communities. The music for this handbell piece was created to match the meaning of each inscription, and here they are: "I announce the festival," "I call the gathering," "I console the living," "I torment demons," and "I sing for the festival." Like our newly installed carillon system, handbells have a distinctive sound like no other; a sound that can inspire and encourage us in our faith journey!

April 2

Our Chancel Choir, with the support of about 20 instrumentalists, will present a truly unique concert at 4:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. All are invited to attend! Here is an excellent opportunity to invite additional family and friends who enjoy classical music to visit our church. Actually, the "Funeral Music for Queen Mary" and Handel's "Coronation Anthems," are both classical music and sacred music. With the "Funeral Music for Queen Mary," you will hear music that quite possibly has never been performed in Tallahassee before. It has some unique elements including a recurring military drum cadence, and a selection for two oboes, two bassoons and drum. Handel's

"Coronation Anthems" includes some of his finest writing for chorus and orchestra!

Also on the program is a short Organ Concerto by Handel: A chance for our fine instrument and our fine organist, Elizabeth LaJeunesse, to combine with an orchestra.....sounds exciting!

April 7

Jonathan Hehn, an organ major at FSU, will present his senior recital in our sanctuary at 7:00 p.m. on April 7. He is presently the organist at Havana Presbyterian Church and studies with Dr. Michael Corzine.

April 30

Our two children's choirs will present the 30 minute musical "A Family Recipe" as part of the 8:30 & 11:00 a.m. services. These NETkids choirs have been working on this musical since mid-January! So, what does the Bible and our Christian heritage say about the family, and especially about raising kids? Here is a light-hearted approach with great messages for kids and grown-ups! The song titles provide a glimpse of what the musical is about: "A Family Recipe," "God's Family Tree," "Parents," "Leave a Message After the Beep," "The Perfect Prescription," "Plant Good Seeds," and "Just Add Love." Our church is an inviting place for children. We offer many activities for them. They even have the privilege of leading in worship occasionally, such as April 30. Come, let them "minister" to you. Bring along some friends and neighbors including their children!

Trinity gains 10 new members in March

Trinity welcomed 9 new members in March. They joined on March 26 and come from many backgrounds.

Minister from sister church in Cuba comes to Tallahassee

This is going to be exciting! After years of negotiations with governments near and far, Reverend Alfredo Caballero from our sister church, San Pablo in Fomento, Cuba, will finally arrive at Trinity. His current itinerary will have him arriving in Tallahassee on April 19 and preaching at all 3 services on April 23. Trinity will have a covered-dish dinner at 6 p.m. Sunday night to welcome him to Tallahassee. He plans on staying for 2 weeks in our fair city.

Efforts by Trinity to host members of our sister church date back to 2003. At that time, Trinity had requested that the minister and 2 lay persons, Manuel Rodriguez, known as Papo, and Zoila Garcia, be allowed to come for a visit. Unfortunately, these efforts failed due to governmental interference by both countries. This time, permission was asked for Papo, Zoila, and Reverend Caballero. And again, all were refused except for Reverend Caballero who is coming on a pastoral visa from the Office of the Bishop of the Cuban Methodist Church in Havana.

While in Tallahassee, Reverend Caballero will meet with church staff, visit local churches, visit Latin American United Methodist churches, and do some sight-seeing in the Tallahassee area.

San Pablo United Methodist Church, Fomento, Cuba

The church in Fomento has been a sister church since 2001. Trinity members have visited Cuba twice, once to celebrate San Pablo's 100th birthday. There are currently over 30 United Methodist churches in the North West District of Florida that have associated sister churches in Cuba.

Trinity has been supportive of San Pablo through donations of Thanksgiving and Christmas offerings, by sending needed medicines, through donations of eye glasses, and also through the pen-pal program (over 100 letters were recently sent). Have your cards and letters ready for Reverend Caballero to take back with him.

Please make plans now to attend the covered dish dinner and wish Reverend Caballero a Trinity welcome. It has been a long time coming.

Try these new books in the Trinity Library

Gloria Colvin

Here are several new books for the Lenten season that have arrived in the Trinity Library.

Prayers for Lent Easter and Pentecost

Donna Schaper, a minister in the United Church of Christ, offers meditations and prayers for the seasons of Lent, Easter, and Pentecost that help us find ways to sense the sacred in ordinary experiences.

The Lure of Saints: A Protestant Experience of Catholic Tradition

As we explore the lives and attributes of various saints during this year's Lenten journey, this book can further our understanding of the traditions of saints, their meaning in history, and today.

Let Us Break Bread Together: A Passover Haggadah for Christians

Passover is a tradition that Jews have celebrated for thousands of years and, as such, is a part of our heritage.

What we know as the Last Supper, was a Passover seder celebrated by Jesus and his disciples. This book, co-authored by a Christian minister and a rabbi, is written to give Christians the opportunity to participate in a Passover seder from a Christian perspective.

Making preparations for life

Kelly Rains,
HEO coordinator

In the two years I've been here as HEO Coordinator, I have found something that no one wants to talk about, but is very important for all of us to do. It is out of love for our family and friends that we need to face the fact that we will all leave this life some day.

There's no way around it, no way to avoid it, and no reason to be afraid to talk about it. And, for most of us, it should be a celebration, a time to rejoice in our new life in heaven. By making just a few simple decisions now, you can save your family a lot of headache and stress. When families are left to make decisions for us, it only makes things harder for them. Is that what we really want? What harm can be done if we each take the time to think about final preparations, no matter what our age?

As we go through different stages of life, additional decisions should also be made. Here are some questions to ponder and discuss with your family:

- What type of funeral service or memorial would you prefer?

- Where would you like to be buried, or do you want cremation?
- How will these costs be covered?
- Do you have a will? A trust?
- For those with children still at home, do you have guardians named?
- Have you discussed your financial obligations and wishes with family?
- Does someone know where all your important papers, contracts, policies and accounts are kept?
- If you are sick or aging, do you have a living will? A health care surrogate? Do you have a power of attorney?
- Who will take care of you when you are no longer able?
- Will you be able to stay where you are living now? Do you need to downsize?
- What are your long-term care plans?
- Do you have any other final wishes that your family should know about?

All of us have very different answers to these questions. We all have different circumstances and resources to work with. I would encourage all of us to take time to process these questions and discuss them with our families.

As hard as it may be to think about these things, we need to remember how helpful it will be for our family later. By taking the time to think about these questions and your wishes, it can benefit your well-being and your loved ones' peace of mind.

Children to carry palms for Palm Sunday

Mark your calendars now for Palm Sunday, April 9. Children in Sunday School classes from grades 1-5 will carry palm branches in the processional at the beginning of the 11 a.m. service. They will also present a special song that they have been practicing.

This has been a tradition at Trinity for many years now. Children should go to their regular Sunday School classroom. Once in class, they will practice their special song in the sanctuary.

After Sunday School, they will meet in the Narthex (the lobby of the Sanctuary) at 10:50 a.m. Please remember that the children will not be wearing robes, so please have them dress accordingly.

Children in preschool and kindergarten Sunday School classes are also invited to carry palms. Since they don't know the song, they will not sing with the other children. Parents of these children are responsible for taking these children out of their Sunday School classes and getting them to the Narthex by 10:50 a.m.

Don't miss the NETkids musical April 30

This year's 30-minute children's musical is titled "A Family Recipe." It will be presented at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services. The two choirs, the Alpha, and the Omega, have been practicing this musical since the middle of January.

They will be leading worship for both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services in the sanctuary. This is a great opportunity to enjoy the talent that is so successfully developed by Music Director Mark Repasky. See you there!

Last year's production was well presented and well attended.

Attention graduates

This is your chance to let Trinity members know that you have made it after all! The Tidings will publish your picture and a brief description of the High School or University from which you have graduated, as well as any honors or degrees.

Just make sure to submit your information (photos are welcome) by May 10. The Trinity graduates feature will be in the June/July Tidings.

Don't forget your flower on Easter

Trinity has a tradition of placing a flower brought from home into the cross in the courtyard. Families then take pictures in front of the cross on Easter morning.

So, make sure to bring your contribution to share with everyone at Trinity.

The man who looks for security, even in the mind, is like a man who would chop off his limbs in order to have artificial ones which will give him no pain or trouble.

Henry Miller

Trinity Chefs make it all better

This happy gang of Trinity chefs is pictured preparing more of the delicious comfort food that will be used to feed people in need. They meet the third Thursday of each month at 9:30 in the Moor Hall kitchen. There is always room in the kitchen for more willing volunteers. The chefs shown here are, from left, Peggy Parkey, Patty Oakley, Lillian Byrd, Hazel Bradley, and Barbara Allen. Not pictured is HEO coordinator Kelly Rains.

Royal Music of England Cantata April 2

Don't miss this year's exciting once-in-a-lifetime presentation of the Royal Music of England. Trinity's Chancel Choir will be joined by the Bach Parley Orchestra and the magnificent Trinity organ played by Elizabeth LaJeunesse.

As part of our Lenten Journey for 2006, we will time-travel back to an England centuries removed. Some of this music has never been presented in Tallahassee!

The concert starts at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday April 2 in our sanctuary. Don't miss this inspirational music!
