Dear Sir,

Just a few lines to express my appreciation for your last letter. Though the arrival of our mail is some times delayed, it came through in record time.

I hope that you and your family enjoyed a beautiful christmas there, and that our new year of 1944 will be both happy and optimistic for all.

We arrived at our first port (of my present trip) on Christmas evening. Upon anchoring in the harbour, we had a most impressive Christmas program on the fantail of our ship. Though our tree was both small and artificial, it was beautiful. The Red Cross had even furnished us with gifts before we left the states, to be used for this occasion.

Please continue to send to me the Monthly Service Bulletin, which insure all of the boys find both interesting and comforting. Thanking you again for your nice letter, I remain,
Respectfully,

V-MAIL
